Governor Blames Late Storm Warnings For Trapping Of Vets

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 7. (AP)—Sheriff D. C. Coleman, directing rescue operations in the lower Keys, reported to the Red Cross today that burning of bodies of Monday night's storm victims had started.

It was after daylight, the sheriff said, before the first match was applied to a pile of oil-soaked bodies.

Swiftly, for the state of the bodies permitted no delay, 500 workers under the direction of Sheriff D. C. Coleman pushed into the territory, got the bodies together and struck matches to their pyres. Coleman estimated 150 would be burned.

Military honors were paid the dead, for most of them fought in the World War. A national guard detachment fired salutes of honor over each pyre. Protestant, Catholic and Jewish clergymen said last rites.

Orders for cremation of bodies which could not be buried quickly were issued by Gov. Dave Sholtz, on recommendation of state health authorities as a precaution against possible outbreak of pestilence.

A priest, a rabbi and a minister were flown to Snake creek by the coast guard to conduct burial services of the dead there.

Few to Have Graves

Despite instructions to bury as many of the victims as possible, it appeared likely that few of the bodies would be placed in the ground because of difficulty of digging graves in the coral rock Keys.

"I think it will be necessary to burn virtually all the bodies in the Keys," said Conrad Van Hyn, (Please turn to Page 2, Col. 3)

INSPECTION OF CITRUS TIGHTENED

Commissioner's Agents Making Daily Calls At Packing Houses

ARRESTS REPORTED

Effect Of Bad Fruit On Eastern Market Is Told By Tubbs

Agricultural Commissioner D. W. Tubbs has tightened up on inspection service at citrus packing houses in order to prevent shipment of granulated oranges to eastern markets. Questioned by The Journal today, Mr. Tubbs said that an inspector now visits each packing house in the county practically every day. This is a considerable increase in frequency of inspection calls.

One carload of granulated Valencia oranges reaching eastern markets would have a serious effect on the citrus industry, said Mr. Tubbs. In a letter sent to packing house managers on August 31, he urged cooperation in the matter, about which he said, "We feel that this is imperative."

Several Arrests Made

Several arrests and prosecutions already have been made in cases where granulated fruit was packed. In other cases inspectors have found granulated fruit in houses and have warned managers about the law against shipping granulated fruit, said Mr. Tubbs. Inspectors go to all packing houses practically every day.

"While we are thoroughly aware of the difficulties involved in grading and are inclined to believe that perhaps in most cases these violations are unintentional, still we are forced to assume the position that it is the intent of the industry that this law should be enforced in accordance with the tolerance set up," said the letter.

Granulation of fruit has been generally noticed this year, but within the last few weeks this condition has appeared to an alarming extent, the letter explained. In some cases, Mr. Tubbs said today, 18 to 20 per cent of certain sizes of fruit has been found to be granulated. He said that if this type of fruit got to

No Curfew in Water Fight!

REDLANDS has a new curfew law. Curfew sounds at midnight and if you're out at that hour you had better scurry for home, say the police.

Well, the editor of The Journal happened to be in Redlands yesterday. Also in San Bernardino, Riverside, Corona, Arlington and a lot of other towns in addition to the country round about. He was acquainting himself more intimately with the Santa Ana river, the flood control project and what becomes of the water after the river emerges from the river canyon at Mentone. He learned:

That the curfew law does not apply to water conservationists in the San Bernardino basin. They are working nights and Sundays to get the first water that comes out of the mountains.

He also learned:

That water-minded people in that area—and this includes nearly everybody—have entered a formal protest to the war department against the granting of funds for the construction of the Prado dam. They fear proper flood control of the Santa Ana river will interfere with their spreading operations on the upper river and along all its tributaries.

At the base of every debris cone—where water from rains and melted snow spreads out in fan-like fashion—you will find a series of masonry dams to force the water into soil, instead of running into the river. The operations, aided by government funds, have been carried on over a great stretch of country—farther than the eye can see.

The water level in some parts of Orange county this year has sunk below sea level.

Curfew bells do not put them to sleep in the San Bernardino basin. Francis Cuttle sees to that.

FLORIDA GALE CITRUS TOLL IS HEAVY

Grapefruit and Orange Damage Is Estimated At Million Boxes

ONE AREA HARD HIT

Loss Confined Mostly To Four Counties On West Coast

TAMPA, Fla., Sept. 7. (AP)—Estimates of the Florida citrus exchange place the storm toll of Florida's already slim citrus crop at 1,000,000 boxes—750,000 of grapefruit and 250,000 of oranges.

E. E. Patterson, sales manager, said the loss was confined almost entirely to the west coast counties—Lee, Sarasota, Manatee and Pinellas.

He added the damage in that section was from 40 to 50 per cent on grapefruit and 20 to 35 per cent on oranges. Of the state's total, he said, that amounts to only about 8 or 9 per cent of the grapefruit crop and 2 per cent of the orange crop.

'MEANS WAR' SAYS ROME OFFICIAL

Ethiopian Spokesman In Italy Feels Conflict Is Certain Now

PROPOSALS REJECTED

Two Suggestions For Settlement Of Row Are Turned Down

ADDIS ABABA, Sept. 7. (AP)—Premier Mussolini today ordered all his consulates in Ethiopia withdrawn and some diplomatic observers here interpreted this as perhaps presaging the use of armed force in the Ethiopian dispute.

In Rome, where he was informed of the Italian minister's action, Jesus Negadras, Ethiopian charge d'affaires declared: "It's true, it means war."

At the same time unofficial Ethiopian sources rejected, as beyond all discussion, a reported compromise proposal from Geneva that Italy be given a protectorate over Ethiopia somewhat similar to the British position in Iraq.

'Impossible Proposal'

The same sources also rejected as impossible the reported proposal of Premier Laval of France that Ethiopia be placed under an international police force similar to that established in the Saar basin territory before last winter's plebiscite returned it to Germany.

Other well-informed Ethiopians, however, expressed the opinion that if the emperor, whose international position is now regarded as stronger than it has been for some time could persuade the tribal chiefs to acceptance of such a force it would be better than military occupation, war might be averted and Ethiopia's sovereignty and independence preserved by the League of Nations.

While there appeared in the latest dispatches from Geneva to be some faint hope of peace these hopes were apparently not shared by the Italian minister who, in a message of Premier Mussolini not only ordered the withdrawal

JEROME HITS SERA COSTS

Talk To Supervisors Of State Brings Action On Relief Problem

Supervisors of all counties in California today are pledged to continue a war that, if successful, will remove direction of California relief activities from the State Emergency Relief administration and return it to county supervision.

Continuation of the campaign was pledged by the State Association of Supervisors following an address yesterday by W. C. Jerome, Orange county supervisor.

Long an advocate of county handling of relief affairs, Mr. Jerome, speaking at a meeting held at the state fair in Sacramento, attacked SERA for the increasing cost of handling relief cases.

The association, he declared, is concerned over the fact that it costs the SERA $48 a case today against $22 "when handled by the counties."

Mr. Jerome was speaking as a member of the relief committee of the Supervisors' association. This group has spent considerable time studying the relief problem and the alleged mounting costs under the federal program.

On several occasions Mr. Jerome has advocated turning all government relief funds for county administration. He has declared that, with the county handling the funds more valuable work could be completed to the satisfaction of the taxpayers and, at the same time, those in need would receive more adequate relief.

At the meeting yesterday a resolution was adopted endorsing the plan of the association's state-wide relief committee to draft a program by which the counties would be responsible alone for welfare work within the state.

HUEY TO PASS MORE BILLS

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 7. (AP)—Louisiana legislators gathered here today for an extraordinary session of the state legislature which reliable reports said would be called for 10 o'clock tonight.

STATE TO BE 85 MONDAY

Public Offices Close In Observance Of Admission Day

Monday will mark the 85th anniversary of the exciting day in 1850 when California leaped into statehood. It will link the present era of speed with the frontier period of '49 when gold discoveries changed the territory almost overnight from a sparsely settled territory to a region seething with activity and adventure.

On the state's 85th birthday city and county offices and banks here will be closed.

Delegations representing the local parlor of Native Sons of the Golden West and the Sons of the Golden West will go to San Diego to take part in Admission day celebrations there. Madame Schumann-Heink will participate in flag raising ceremonies at the exposition.

Stores Remain Open

Santa Ana stores will remain open on Monday, while the post-office also will provide its regular service.

Governor Merriam has issued a proclamation for observance of Admission day, describing the day California entered the Union, as one of "extraordinary significance in the state's historical development."

California became a state on Sept. 9, 1850, after an intense struggle in congress. It was feared that admission of the new state would be delayed.

SHIP AGROUND NEAR SEATTLE

SEATTLE, Sept. 7. (AP)—The freighter Harry Luckenbach went ashore at 12:30 a. m. today on the north side of Robinson Point, Maury Island, while on her way to Tacoma.

The vessel, operated in the inter-coastal service of the Luckenbach lines, stranded in fog directly opposite Des Moines. The Harry Luckenbach struck when the tide was about half out, stranding in mud and sand, was not believed to be damaged.

Sheriff Ernest Graham reported today he believed a spasm of flashes of light from the hills and houses of the little village, were definite efforts to warn I. C. Spencer, Silvia Alred and Brice Johnson, the fugitives, that the law was still in the vicinity.

Authorities also expressed belief that only 200 yards of ground, the distance from Short Creek to the Utah border, where the trio is believed to have fled, probably will delay proceedings because of necessity of obtaining extradition papers.

Have Crossed Line

Somewhat wearied after a night's hunt in the jagged hills surrounding the town, Sheriff Graham indicated the three persons had successfully crossed the Utah line or were being secreted by friends in the hills. A methodical search of practically every home in Short Creek failed to reveal them.

Three Defendants In Arizona Case Skip; Officers Fear Plot

SHORT CREEK, Ariz., Sept. 7. (AP)—The appearance of strange signal lights before dawn today, and the mysterious disappearance of three defendants in this remote settlement's purported polygamy cases, led officers to express belief there was a general plot to prevent prosecution.

Sheriff Ernest Graham reported today he believed a spasm of flashes of light from the hills and houses of the little village, were definite efforts to warn I. C. Spencer, Silvia Alred and Brice Johnson, the fugitives, that the law was still in the vicinity.

PRICE OF 'GAS' NOT CUT HERE

Gasoline prices in Santa Ana remained unchanged today, despite reports of price warfare among majors and independents, it was revealed by a check of major and independent dealers here.

The retail price slash, reported from San Francisco, was 2 1/2 cents per gallon. The drop was spreading up and down the coast, the Associated Press said.

OLD FOSTER SONG FOUND

S. A. Man Has Early Classic

By TED STEPHENSON

Burr Shaffer, 1243 South Broadway, Santa Ana, has discovered what he believes to be a forgotten composition of the famous American composer, Stephen C. Foster. Mr. Shaffer, who for years has been collecting musical compositions, found the song, titled "Maggie By My Side," in an old collection bound into one volume.

For several months, he has been attempting to find someone who could tell him something about the history of the composition. He has written to music houses throughout the country and to well-known collectors, but so far he has been unable to locate anyone who has ever heard of the song.

In reviewing the composer's works, it will be remembered that he is responsible for some of the country's most popular folk songs. Among Stephen Foster's works are "My Old Kentucky Home," "Old Folks at Home," "Camp Town Races," "Old Black Joe," "Nellie Was a Lady," "Oh Susie" (Please turn to Page 2, Col. 1)

Citrus Laws Protect Industry; All Should Help Enforce Them

Because of the widespread interest in excessive citrus granulation this season and the threatened disastrous results, The Journal has asked Holmes Bishop, widely known grower and student of marketing, to write a series of articles which discuss causes and effects and the way to avoid more serious difficulties before it is too late. Mr. Bishop's second article follows:

By HOLMES BISHOP

All the laws of the state that have to do with agriculture are assembled in what is called the agricultural code. Its enforcement is delegated to the state department of agriculture and the county agricultural commissioners. In 1933 their duties were coordinated under the supreme power of the director of agriculture in an effort to make the enforcement in the various counties more uniform.

This code contains the law on standardization. It governs all citrus fruits, apples, berries, avocados, tomatoes, potatoes, etc. In fact it covers about 32 different agricultural commodities.

Perhaps there are many housewives who do not know when they buy a box of berries and find the big ones on top and the little ones in the bottom that a law has been violated; that every year there are prosecutions for its violations; and that if she finds deception in the commodity she purchases, and does not notify the agricultural commissioner, it is perhaps a moral neglect of duty. The commissioner's force is not large enough to inspect everything, and he should receive the cooperation of deceived purchasers.

The principal phases bearing on citrus fruits have to do with maturity, freezing

KENTUCKY VOTE UNDER GUARD

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 7. (AP)—Eight hundred Kentucky national guardsmen marched into Harlan county today, took over the reins of government in the town of Wallin and patrolled voting places over the county in the Democratic run-off primary election.

Kentucky Democrats were balloting today to nominate candidates for governor and other state wide offices. The troop movement to Harlan paralleling a similar occurrence in the first primary Aug. 3, and a bitter, personal fight between Thomas S. Rhea and Lieut. Gov. A. B. Chandler for the nomination for governor, overshadowed all other aspects of the primary.

REFERENDUM ON CHAIN STORE TAX APPROVED IN STATE CAPITAL

MEASURE PUT ON BALLOT FOR 1936

Petitions On $2,000,000 Measure Accepted By State Secretary

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 7. (AP)—Referendum petitions putting up to the people the question of whether California shall impose a $2,000,000 annual tax upon chain stores were completed today before the secretary of state.

Frank C. Jordan, the secretary, announced that county clerks have certified to him petitions carrying 135,023 signatures of registered voters, or 19,536 more than are required by law to put the issue to a ballot test. Filings were made from nearly 50 counties.

Delays Imposition Qualification of the petitions automatically delays imposition of the tax until the people have voted upon it. The referendum will go on the November, 1936, ballot.

Until then the tax, enacted by the 1935 legislature and signed by Governor Merriam after one of the most spectacular campaigns in California legislative history, will not be operative.

If the people defeat the referendum at the 1936 general election, the tax bill will become effective as soon as the vote of the election can be officially recorded, generally about the following Dec. 20.

Approval of the referendum would kill the tax immediately. Another group of petitions being circulated upon the question of imposing an oleomargarine tax, voted by the 1935 legislature, have not been completed.

2 Million Per Year Circulation of the chain store tax petitions began immediately after July 20, when Governor Merriam signed the measure imposing a tax ranging from $1 for the first store in a chain up to $500 for the tenth unit and each succeeding one. Its revenue has been estimated at $2,000,000 a year.

The measure became one of the most controversial of the 1935 legislature, chain stores fighting it bitterly as discriminatory legislation and a certain avenue to increased prices for the low-salaried customer. Proponents claimed it would provide the only barrier to slow destruction of the small, independent merchant suffering from the cut-price competition of the large chains.

PEOPLE HAVE CHANCE SAYS CHAIN ATTORNEY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7. (AP) John Francis Neelan, attorney for California chain stores, said today he was informed that a referendum certificate for a vote on repeal of the recently enacted chain store tax had been issued in Sacramento.

"Secretary of State Jordan's certificate assured to the people of California an opportunity to vote whether they want to increase the cost of necessities of life by 10 per cent and whether the agricultural interests of California want to drive out of the state customers buying $232,000,000 worth of California products every year."

NEW SHERIFF'S AIDE IS APPOINTED

A. W. Fullerton, Orange, who for many years has been active as a citrus buyer, today was appointed temporary deputy sheriff to fill the vacancy recently created when Jim Musick left for Boston to play professional football with the Boston Redskins. Announcement of the appointment was made today by Sheriff Logan Jackson.

Mr. Fullerton, who is a brother-in-law of the sheriff, has been doing some special work for the sheriff's department.

sanna," and "Massa's in De Cold, Cold Ground."

Mr. Shafer has perused numerous catalogues listing Foster's works, but has found no mention of "Maggie By My Side." Because of a desire to trace the history of the song and learn something about it, Mr. Shafer has asked that the words to the old composition be published, hoping that someone may recognize them and communicate with him about it.

Here are the words of the supposedly forgotten Stephen Foster composition:

"The land of my home is flitting, flitting from view; A gall in the sail is sitting, toils the merry crew."

"Here, let my home be on water, let me live with proud heart; Maggie's by my side. My own love, Maggie dear, sitting by my side; Maggie dear, my own love, sitting by my side."

"The wind howling o'er the below from the distant lee, the storm raging 'round my pillow brings no care to me;

"Roll on, ye dark words, o'er the troubled tide, I heed not your anger. Maggie's by my side; my own love, Maggie dear, sitting by my side;

"Maggie, my own love, sitting by my side."

POLICE PAGING FRANK BUCK

Three Animals on Loose Here

Santa Ana police today were considering issuing an emergency call for "Bring 'Em Back Alive" Frank Buck.

And Assistant Chief of Police Harry Fink announced he is considering the possibility of getting a pith helmet and a native gun-bearer and starting out on a safari.

Yesterday and last night three calls came from animal owners, asking police to do what they could to recover their lost, strayed or stolen pets. A. E. Marks, 191 South Cambridge street, Orange, lost his dog in the 200 block on Orange avenue in Santa Ana yesterday. The dog is described as being an Alaskan huskie, and is dark red. The owner has offered a reward for its return.

L. R. Quick, 2464 Heliotrope drive, called at 12:30 a. m. today, announced that his pet "possum" had escaped, and said he would appreciate it if officers could find it for him. He said the "possum" was not vicious, and in fact was really a docile little thing. He said he didn't think they would have any trouble capturing it if they could find it.

H. L. Bisby, manager of the Santa Ana hotel, has lost what he described as a "tiger cat with a little bit of yellow on its stomach and with a good husky tail. Its name is "Mickey." Mr. Bisbee also has offered a reward to the daring man that makes the capture and returns it to the owner.

Explains 'Tolerance'

The letter to packing house managers recalled that at the end of the 1933 season "our citrus market was demoralized to the extent that many growers were unable to receive satisfactory remuneration for their fruit. Whatever other conditions may have contributed to this situation, it was at that time frankly admitted that the poor quality of fruit arriving in the eastern markets was a major factor."

The letter also quoted the agricultural code on tolerance, as follows: "With the exception of serious damage caused by freezing, not more than 10 per cent by count of the citrus fruit in any one container or bulk lot may be below these requirements."

The tolerance for frosted fruit is 15 per cent.

TAX DEADLINE WARNING MADE

County Assessor James Sleeper today sounded a warning to motorists that Sept. 15 is the deadline for payment of taxes and other personal property not secured by real estate.

Under a new law adopted this year by the legislature an 8 per cent penalty will be imposed on unpaid personal property taxes after that date. Under the old law the deadline was Dec. 1, and after that date a 10 per cent penalty was attached.

Mr. Sleeper said that for owners of automobiles brought in from other states, after March 1, 1935, no tax will be collected until after Jan. 1, when payment of automobile taxes will be made direct to the state and not to the county assessor.

Under the new law permitting the state to collect the automobile tax at the same time the license is issued, the cars will be assessed at their actual value and not the one-third valuation as has been imposed in the past.

Through a strange circumstance this change in the law will increase the amount of taxes paid on their automobiles by the far, but will make no difference to the resident of incorporated areas.

Mr. Sleeper said that because the city tax rates have always been higher than the county rates, the fact that the state will impose a straight tax rate of $1.75 per $100 assessed valuation will make no difference in the amount the city dweller will pay. In the county, however, it will represent a heavy increase in the amount paid. Payment of this tax to the state also will eliminate householders' and veterans' exemption.

ing, state welfare commissioner. Relief workers, wearied and sickened by sights of horror, proceeded as rapidly as possible to dispose of the bodies, which Dr. Henry Hanson, state health officer, said were in advanced stages of decomposition.

The burned victims will rest in the Little Matecumbe cemetery near where the hurricane wrought its greatest havoc. Meanwhile, the disturbance which brought the havoc moved on northeastward and caused storm warnings to be posted from Sandy Hook, N. J., to Boston.

Graves for 125

In Miami, graves were dug to hold the bodies of 125 World War veterans brought out of the storm area.

They were killed, with comrades and civilians in great numbers, when the mad storm slashed the government relief camps where they were quartered on Matecumbe Key. The Red Cross said the number dead or missing totalled 446.

Even though President Roosevelt, at Hyde Park, N. Y., still was reluctant to take the step for cremation of the bodies, Governor Sholtz and Dr. Hanson said it was a question of protecting public health, and that bodies which could not be buried immediately in the Keys would be burned.

Governor Sholtz announced he would go to Washington next week to hand to President Roosevelt a report on casualties, property damage, possible rehabilitation and charges that adequate warning of the storm's approach was not given by the weather bureau.

State Attorney G. A. Worley, Aubrey Williams, personal representative of Harry L. Hopkins, Federal Relief administrator, and the American Legion launched investigations into the disaster that overtook the three veterans camps on the Keys.

DEAD, MISSING PLACED AT 446 BY RED CROSS

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 7. (AP)—Aubrey Williams, Federal Relief Administrator Harry L. Hopkins' personal representative here, announced today his latest check of the dead, missing and survivors in the three storm smashed Florida Keys veterans' rehabilitation camps showed:

Total veterans in three camps—716.

Known, identified dead—46.

Unidentified dead and missing—281.

Injured in hospitals—138.

Uninjured or very slightly hurt—244.

Not accounted for in any records—7.

Williams explained the latter figure represented persons known to be in the camps, but whose names were not recorded.

The last Red Cross estimate of civilian dead was 90. The Red Cross placed the total dead or missing at 446.

of the consulates but shipped abroad large quantities of the legation furniture, paintings, chinaware and silver plate.

In London, newspapers stated that Mussolini had assured France that Italy will not resort to war so long as the Italo-Ethiopian dispute is under consideration.

Indians Arrive

One hundred twenty-nine turbaned Sikhs with curly beards and half-moon earrings—the Fourteenth Punjab regiment—came from India as a British legion guards—shivered in thin cotton shorts today in the compound of the British legation.

The usual heavy downpour of rain which ushered in their first day in Addis Ababa depressed not only these Indians who rushed from the tropics to the frigid atmosphere of the Ethiopian plateau, but also the rumor-mongers who spent a chilly night spreading wild reports inspired by British official secrecy.

Prominent Rumor

Prominent among the rumors was one that a full battalion of 1200 infantry accompanied the three carloads of field artillery and anti-aircraft troops rushed from Addis Ababa.

There was no explanation immediately forthcoming of the secrecy surrounding the arrival of the troops, for it had been known for at least a fortnight they were coming.

GENEVA GROUPE APPEALS TO ITALY, ETHIOPIA

GENEVA, Sept. 7. (AP)—The five-power committee named by the League of Nations council to deal with the Italo-Ethiopian crisis voted today to send letters to Italy and Ethiopia requesting them to abstain from anything which might render negotiations difficult. Salvador de Madariaga, chairman of the committee, told the Associated Press.

Italy and Ethiopia thus were virtually requested not to resort to force.

The French delegation said they would be asked to refrain from anything which would aggravate the situation.

Review Situation

Today's session of the five-power committee was devoted to a review of the East African crisis.

Premier Pierre Laval of France and Anthony Eden of Great Britain told the representatives of Spain, Turkey and Poland what happened at the Paris tri-power conversations.

Madariaga, Spanish representative; Joseph Beck of Poland, and Tevlik Rustu Aras of Turkey, told the committee their views on the situation.

No Proposals Made

Madariaga said no concrete suggestions had been made to the committee for a solution of the controversy, asserting the meeting was "really the preliminary to a preliminary."

The Geneva atmosphere was perceptibly brighter. Three perilous days of discussion of the Italo-Ethiopian conflict had been survived without an open break between Italy and the league.

Dissatisfied delegates to the council session asserted, however, that Italy had conceded nothing.

Concession Seen

Premier Mussolini's action in telephoning to his chief delegate, Baron Pompeo Aloisi, that he no longer insisted that Italy be represented on the committee if England and France were members, had been interpreted as a last-minute concession.

Italy's attitude toward constitution of the commission was described in reliable quarters as one of complete indifference. These sources indicated Italy expected the commission to offer an unacceptable compromise, tending to increase French and British influence in Ethiopia.

Pope Sees Peace

Nevertheless, Pope Pius, addressing 20,000 former service men at St. Paul's Basilica, Rome, told them that "from our latest information, we seem to see forming on the horizon a rainbow of peace casting its rays across the world." Meanwhile, in London informed

WOMAN HIGH IN ORANGE P. O. TEST

Results of the recent civil service examinations for the position of postmaster of Orange, today indicated that Mrs. David Wettlin, acting postmistress, will receive the permanent appointment to that office.

Mrs. Wettlin, who was appointed temporary postmistress in December, 1933, received a higher grade on the examination than any of the other aspirants to the office. It was learned. V. D. Johnson and Joe Peterson both received grades on the examination which made them eligible for appointment. However, it was the consensus of opinion in Orange that Mrs. Wettlin will receive the appointment when congress reconvenes.

The report from Washington brings to a close a race among various aspirants to the office. When the examinations for the postmastership were first taken in February, 1934, Mrs. Wettlin failed to qualify. Mr. Johnson, Mr. Peterson and Frank Thompson received the highest grades in the examination at that time. However, no appointment was made. Recommendations had been tendered by the democratic central committee, but results were not forthcoming.

Since none of the recommendations were acceptable, a call for a second civil service examination was issued, with the result indicating Mrs. Wettlin's permanent appointment.

said, "I searched every automobile coming and going into the community."

He asserted the search for the fugitives would continue. They disappeared yesterday during court adjournment while 75 members of the United Order of Brethren, a sect practicing polygamy, jammed the little frame schoolhouse where the hearing was conducted.

Charge Attacked

Six persons were accused of living in a state of polygamy and Joseph Musser of Salt Lake city, an official of a religious cult, filed a demurrer attacking sufficiency of the complaints.

Justice of the Peace J. M. Lauritzen dismissed the charges, but County Attorney Elmo Bollinger filed new accusations against the three persons who later disappeared.

Those freed of the accusations were Helen Hull, John Y. Barlow and Clarence Alred.

Barlow, resident manager of the Arizona Trust, operated by the United Order of Brethren, explained the sect's belief in polygamy and declared "if we are allowed to continue we will have all of these people off the relief rolls in a year."

CHECK CHARGE PLACED AGAINST HERBERT F. KENNY

Herbert F. Kenny, 55, Epic candidate for assemblyman in the last general election, was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Bob Steinberger and booked at the county jail on charges of issuing a check with intent to defraud.

At the time the check was issued on May 25, last, Mr. Kenny was acting in the capacity of secretary treasurer of the American Cooperative Union. The check was for $234.40, and made out to F. H. Hunt, Los Angeles, in payment for 90 gallons of oil. Mr. Hunt, who then was proprietor of an oil refinery located near the county hospital, deposited the check in a Los Angeles bank. The check was returned because of insufficient funds.

Mr. Kenny was arraigned yesterday afternoon before Justice of the Peace K. E. Morrison, and Sept. 12 was set as the date for the preliminary hearing. Justice Morrison released Mr. Kenny on his own recognizance.

STOVE IGNITES CURTAINS, HOUSE IS DESTROYED

A blazing oil stove in the home of James Vanfleet, located on Slater road near Costa Mesa, at 2 a. m. today ignited curtains, resulting in destruction of the small house. Mr. Vanfleet had arisen early to care for some livestock. When he returned to the house, he found the kitchen ablaze. He managed to save most of the furniture and personal effects from the fire. Loss was estimated at $100.

sources said British officials were taking a serious view to reports reaching them of an anti-British, pro-Italian campaign in Egypt. It was indicated the government had taken the question up with the Egyptian government and that a quiet investigation was going on to learn the campaign's source.

British concern for the effects of Egyptian propaganda was manifest as the Italian press took up discussion of the British position in Egypt.

YOUTHS PROVIDE OWN FUN PAIR HELD IN S. D. SLAYING

Stage Dances For Young Folk

By ELLEN SNEBLEY

"Where'll we go tonight?" Ten Orange county boys got tired of hearing that question over and over.

So eight weeks ago they rented the Orange Legion clubhouse for a Friday night and invited their friends to a dance. Nine of them played in the orchestra, and Bill Blaikie as business manager stood at the door.

Ten couples attended the first dance. Last night I visited the clubhouse and saw more than 100 young people gliding, bobbing, hesitating and waiting to the music of Jack McCarty's orchestra. The music compared favorably with that of a "big" orchestra that came over the car radio enroute to the dance.

"We charge as little as possible, boys and girls can stay it, we don't have pass-out checks or allow drinking and besides our chaparones, any parents are welcome to visit our dances," the boys told me.

Interested in the idea of a dance which girls can justifiably brag, I talked to one curly-haired brunette who came with a girl friend. "We have a good time," she said. "We come and go alone, and get quite a few dances. Lots of the boys just come and sit, though."

Abandoning natural modesty, I sat down by a nice looking boy who'd been sitting alone since I came in. I told him the girls' comment and asked why the stags "just sat."

"If you want the truth, lots of us are bashful," he confessed. "We don't know whether a girl wants to dance, and we're afraid to ask."

A plan of the caperones to introduce those who arrive alone sounded promising. Orchestra members, all former or present Orange county students, are Bill Williams, Jack Blaikie, Paul Fallart, Len Cheatum, Dick Melrose, Jack McCarty, Winford Brown, Stan Boritz and Calvin Breeding. Although they've just started out of the red, the boys declare their dances such fun that profit is secondary.

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Sept. 7. (AP) Virgil T. McComas, 36, and his common-law wife, Vyra Anderson, 26, were arraigned in Township Justice Joe Shell's court today on charges of murdering Arthur A. Quist, 45, retired chief petty officer.

The body of Mr. Quist, his head torn by lead shotgun slugs, was found yesterday beside the highway on Fifty-fourth street one mile north of the Broadway extension.

BREA AND YORBA LINDA WORK RELIEF PROJECTS ARE APPROVED

FEDERAL AID GRANTED TODAY

New Community Hall and Recreational Project Receive Sanction

Approval of two Orange county works relief projects, including a community hall for Brea and playground improvements at Yorba Linda, were announced in Washington today.

Brea will obtain a new community hall costing about $8800, with a federal appropriation of $5340 and local funds of $3458, it was announced. Yorba Linda's grammar school recreational ground improvement program also received federal approval, with the government furnishing $1210 and $512 to be raised locally.

Both projects were included in announcement of approval of projects in California to cost $739,288, approved today by President Roosevelt.

Included in other programs approved were at Norwalk, copying of institutional records, federal $650, sponsor $245; Corona, junior high school alterations, earthquake proofing, federal $6223, sponsor, $913; Chino, brooder houses, federal $3023, sponsor, $2,320; Ontario, curb and gutter construction, federal $24,148, sponsor, $7198; junior college campus improvement, federal $13,995, sponsor, $21,732; curbs and gutters, federal $21,233, sponsor, $13,026. San Bernardino, curbs and gutters, federal $2630, sponsor, $2,052; La Jolla, new pier and repairing of buildings, federal, $2,832, sponsor, $948.

BEACH ROTARY HEARS TALK

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—Colonel M. B. Wellington, Santa Ana attorney, who is an active leader in Boy Scout work, addressed the Rotary club at the weekly luncheon meeting held in the Golden Bear cafe yesterday.

Col. Wellington spoke on "Communism in America" and defended the Constitution of America when he stated that it was the oldest document and had stood for 200 years. He declared that it had taken a group of serious-minded men a number of years to write the Constitution and some would tear it to pieces to write another.

Miss Jeanne Baldwin sang two solos and with W. H. Galliano sang a duet, accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Colvin.

Art McCormack presided, and A. H. Dixon and C. R. Furr arranged the program.

BOLSA COUPLE RETURN FROM TRIP

BOLSA.—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Allen have returned from Italy, where they were guests of John Gibson, who is vacationing there.

Robert Richardson is building an addition to his home here. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Conradi visited the exposition at San Diego this week.

C. H. Warner is still confined to the hospital in Sawtelle, where he has been a patient for some time.

Bill Wallingford of San Diego recently spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Wallingford.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bauer and family and Mr. and Mrs. John Ketter and daughter visited San Juan Hot Springs recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Heil and family from El Centro have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Willingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Haun and family and Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Packard and family have returned from a fishing trip in the San Bernardino mountains.

Cornie Vogelzang is spending his vacation visiting friends and helping his father build the new Vogelzang home on First street.

Mrs. Edith McMillin and son, Lloyd, were guests of friends recently in Compton.

Mr. and Mrs. John King and daughter of Oakland visited at San Diego this week.

GARDEN GROVE CHURCH CLASS HAS SOCIAL SESSION

GARDEN GROVE.—Members of the Philathea class of the Baptist church were guests of Mrs. Maude Schumacher recently for their social meeting of the month. The president, Miss Jennie Hedstrom, conducted a short business session with Mrs. Hattie Beardsley leading devotions. Games were directed by Mrs. Etta Chambers and Mrs. Mary Littlejohn.

Assisting Mrs. Schumacher as hostesses were Mesdames Effie Coates, Anna Sowers and Pearl DuFrain.

Others present were Mesdames Blanche Darling, Goldie Arrow-smith, Mary Kester, Myrtle Cook-erham, Maline Faires, Myrtle Christensen, Blanche Brintnall, Bertha Allen, Dessa Emerson, Bertha Harvey, Misses Edith and Grace Hedstrom and Margaret Arrow-smith.

Brick Dust

By BRICK GAINES

Chances for some sort of a county-wide celebration, with all organizations backing the plan, begin to look brighter.

Last night the Placentia parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, announced unanimous approval of some such celebration.

Mrs. Nellie M. Cline, grand officer of the organization, also was enthusiastic.

"We need something like this to bring us all closer together, and I'm absolutely certain that it can be done," she said.

Which makes one stop and think. How can we best celebrate, all of us, some important event in our county's history?

The answer, so far, seems to be "Capistrano, and the mission." Sounds logical, but others may have better ideas. We'd like to hear 'em.

How would an all-day fiesta do? With a barbecue, in the old-time style. Maybe roast a couple of cows, or something. Have a lot of dancing. Break out the old Spanish costumes—and costumes—with such an event, people by the thousands would be drawn to our county. The sort of people we'd want to come.

Let the Spanish Californian club at Capistrano would like the idea. Haven't talked to them yet, but a fiesta should fit right in with their plans for preserving old traditions of the pueblo. They seem to be dancing or singing every time we hear of 'em. They'd be in good practice for playing host at such a celebration, I'll wager.

However, it's all just talk, yet. Clyde Simmons in Yorba Linda started it, as far as I can learn. Lots of people seem to think that it's a good idea. How about you?

To Yorba Linda and visited Jim Smalley's tennis racket factory. There's only one other in the state, so it was of interest. Jim's an artist in turning out by hand what great factories use machinery and many men to accomplish.

He takes little strips of wood and gets all messy gluing 'em

COSTA MESANS FORM GRANGE

COSTA MESA.—Organization of a unit of the California state Grange was completed at a meeting here Thursday evening, with 40 charter members present.

Officers elected were Donald Stearns, master; Nate Hughes, overseer; Donald Stearns, lecturer; Allin W. Gardner, steward; Daniel Reech, assistant steward; S. G. Newman, chaplain; Ed-wyn McFadden, treasurer; Mrs. Myrtle Hughes, secretary; Claud Chilcoat, gatekeeper; Isabell McFadden, Ceres; Mrs. A. W. Gardner, Pomona.

Vagar, Flora and Mrs. Lester Platt, assistant steward.

Members of the executive committee are George Waterman, Lester Platt and Walter Hart.

A public installation will be held in the Community hall here at 8 p. m., Sept. 19, it was announced, with the public invited to attend.

H. B. SCHOOLS OPEN TUESDAY

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—The new elementary school building is completed and ready for occupancy when the doors open next Tuesday for the fall term of school, it was announced today by W. J. Bristol, president of the school board.

Miss Agnes Smith will be the principal of the school and has outlined the work for the year. A larger enrollment than last year is expected.

The cafeteria has been completely remodeled and will be under the management of Mrs. Beulah Westmoreland.

WOMAN'S CLUB OPENS YEAR

MIDWAY CITY.—The Midway City Woman's club will open the club year with a pot-luck luncheon at the clubhouse next Thursday. Dr. George A. Warner, pastor of the Santa Ana Methodist church, will speak in the afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The program committee, composed of Mrs. Harry Kingsbury, Mrs. Bruce Palmer, Mrs. Orion Bebermeyer, Mrs. Fred Basse and Mrs. Anne Van Steenbergh, announce that they have practically completed plans for an unusually interesting year. Thursday, September 26, Mrs. Archibald Edwards, new president of the Orange County Federation of Women's clubs, will be the speaker.

Mrs. J. Hadley Pryor, president of the club, will entertain the executive board at a covered dish luncheon at her home next Monday.

JOLLY DOZEN CLUB HAS MEETING AT MIDWAY CITY

MIDWAY CITY.—The Jolly Dozen club met at the home of Mrs. S. A. Miller recently for their regular monthly dinner and bridge game. Mrs. Harry Kingsbury was received as a new member to fill the vacancy caused by resignation of Mrs. Glenn Wells.

Following dinner three tables of bridge were played, high score prize going to Mrs. J. L. Esser. Mrs. Maurice Price received second and Mrs. Basse consolation. Present were Mesdames N. A. Nelson, Fred Foley, W. E. Moore, Harry Kingsbury, Gale Dunstan, J. L. Esser, B. L. Kirkham, R. F. Hazard, Maurice Price, Fred Basse, Charles Bickmore and S. A. Miller.

OCEANVIEW CLUB PLANS MEETING

OCEANVIEW.—Townsend club No. 1 will meet next Tuesday evening in the auditorium of the Oceanview school, while on September 17 outside clubs will be invited to participate in a mass meeting, and the "ostrich egg." Except when he's shooting rabbits.

It's a hobby which has turned into a business with the Yorba Linda. He's developed his method of manufacture to the point where distributors are interested in his product and many top-ranking players are now using what might be called the home-made raquets. He works in his garage, the walls festooned with dozens of partially completed specimens. He's practically surrounded with electric motors and drills and a Scottie dog and neighbor kids. And he seems to enjoy it, plenty.

"Please, mister, we want to see what a jail looks like."

That's what two kids told Sergeant Jim Pifer, Anaheim policeman, the other day.

He let 'em peek around the corner to see where bad people are sent when they are bad. And then sent 'em on their way. That'll be something for the pair to talk about for weeks.

Tonight merchants at Balboa play host to everyone who wants to come to their own personal fiesta.

They've arranged for strolling players—or are they playing strollers—to entertain over the week-end and through Monday. The original "Peanut Vendor" is going to be there, they say. Also Spanish singers and Spanish dancers and Spanish orchestras. And the streets will be decorated with Spanish colors.

Yes, the guess is correct. It's going to be a Spanish fiesta.

Household Arts

PATTERN 5436

With fall just around the corner and that inventory of linens showing need for replenishing or smartening up, you'll find this choice of crocheted edgings just the thing. In its varied selection, there are edgings for towels, pillow cases, scarfs, cloths, napkins—all widths—all types. And some of them are just the thing for fall neckwear—dainty lingerie or baby things. Some of the bindings lend themselves to shelving. And wouldn't you be proud to show your linen or your kitchen closet with shelves edged with a handsome lace? Use string for the shelving but finer cotton for the other laces.

In pattern 5436 you will find directions for the edgings shown; material requirements; illustrations of all stitches needed. To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to Santa Ana Journal Household Arts Department, 117 East Fifth street, Santa Ana.

ORANGE RELIEF DRIVE STARTS

ORANGE.—The Orange welfare board met yesterday afternoon to make plans to raise $2,000 which will be used to aid needy in Orange for the coming year. Besides money the board asks for clothing, household articles and canned food, or staple groceries. The drive will start on Sept. 16 and will be in charge of C. H. Robinson. Service clubs will probably aid in making collections in the business district, while representatives from all organizations, both men and women, will contact householders in the residence district. Contributions will also be received at any of the local banks.

Coast L-i-n-e-s

By McDONALD WHITE

Folks, meet the city officials of Laguna. They're all lined up in a column and are ready to pass in parade. Up drives Mayor Frank Champion in his familiar black-and-tan coupe. It being council night, the mayor takes his chair at the head of the "round table" (which isn't round). Shortly City Attorney M. G. Harvey strolls in and takes his seat to the right of the mayor. Moving around, clock-wise, we find that G. W. Wilson is among those present. A long, brand new cigar comes around the corner—and you guessed it—L. F. Mallow is on the other end of it.

Who's that at the far end of the table with all the communications and books? Why, that is City Clerk Ed H. Beaver. He reads all the "don't say I didn't warn you, and please do something about it," communications from local I-own-at-lot-ers. Once Mr. Beaver read a letter that actually commended the council for a recent action. The shock was terrific. It should never happen again.

And so on to H. G. Heisler, who puffs cigarettes throughout difficult decisions. The hands of the clock now point to Thomas A. Cummings, who knows a lot about a lot of things and is always ready with a motion. That, folks, is a picture of the honorable city council about to go into action.

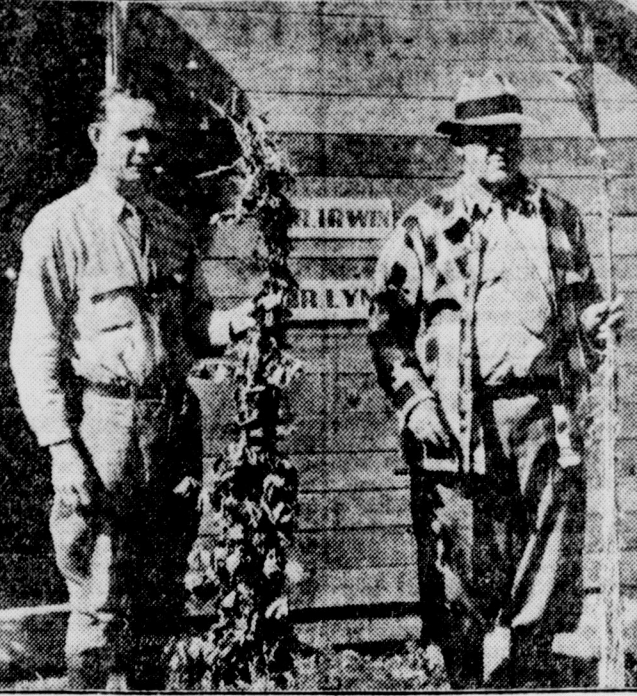

Now for some others. Could drop down to the downstairs offices to interview City Engineer A. J. Stead, but let's let him come up and see us. Tramp-tramp-tramp. He's coming up the stairs now. Watch him duck under the doorway. Get it? He's tall. And he looks exactly like an engineer should look—tall, hard, rugged. He's going to show the members of the council the big map that's tucked under his arm. But let's skip that. Here comes Floyd Case. He's the building inspector and checker-upper just about everything constructive that goes on in this fair city. Oh, yes, he's a plumb. That's the word. And has a real fine smile to go with it. City treasurers shouldn't be out this late at night, so wouldn't know where to find Sam Piety.

Who is that big man chewing the stub of a cigar and sauntering out of the police department? Why, of course, it's Police Chief Abe W. Johnson. You'll like him—unless you've been naughty! He has a right amiable disposition, but they say he can be plenty tough when the occasion demands. Better be good! Here comes Howard D. Allanson, grinning. Next Jack Blakeney roars up on his motorcycle, looking very serious about something. Then Paul Johnson, chucking over a joke he heard last night. That's all of the regulars.

Look at Judge C. C. Cravath and Constable E. T. Cresse standing over there watching Pifer. Chief P. J. Bushman review his men. There's D. Woodward, assistant chief, Cecil Baggs, Dave Belfour, Wally Cax, Sherman Dodson, Ed Elderman, A. J. Grant, George Garbarino, Charles Jester, Wayman Johnson, captain of the little truck, Joe Kirkbride, Oliver Hill, Frank McLaughlin, Fred Perry, Captain of the big truck, Ed Seamen, Glen Teeter and Leo Wilson.

AUXILIARY HAS CHURCH CLASS

GARDEN GROVE.—Recently installed officers of the Garden Grove American Legion auxiliary conducted their first meeting of the year at the Legion hall, Thursday evening. Taking their chairs for the first time were Mrs. Lillian Thorpe, president; Mrs. Mae Hilda Marr, second vice president; Mrs. Mildred Jones, secretary; Mrs. Jennie Lewis, treasurer; Mrs. Jean Miller, historian; Mrs. Eleanor Rojas, sergeant-at-arms and Mrs. Gladys Lieberman, marshal.

Burnett reports renting the Dobbins house to John Canfield of South El Molino, Pasadena. W. O. Bridges, manager of Excelsior Creamery, leaves Sunday with his wife for a vacation trip to Yellowstone National park. Mr. Bridges plans to spend part of the time deer hunting. . . Thomas L. Hosmer will shortly move his florist shop to 341 Costa boulevard, south, in the Isch building. . . Lloyd J. Seiselt, manager of Laguna hotel, says business hasn't dropped off a bit since Labor day. He was wearing one of those "business is good" smiles to back up his optimism.

Bud Kerrigan, who graduated from Hollywood high last year with highest honors and a member of the Aphesian society, which chooses its members for leadership scholarship and character, received notice this week from the state board of education to come to Los Angeles to confer with Roosevelt representative on the youth movement. Bud presented his ideas on how the government money should be spent on high school scholarships. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerrigan, of Hollywood, who spend every summer in Laguna.

Students! Hear ye! Hear ye! Local registration of pupils starts September 11. That's Wednesday when the seventh and eighth grades register. Thursday, 12, ninth and tenth grades. Friday, 13, eleventh and twelfth grades. Don't forget! Or could you?

Judge John Landell and son John, Jr., from Capistrano, stopped to say how-de-do in town last Thursday afternoon. He was on the look for no less a personage than our own man of justice, C. C. Cravath. Jack Blakeney was there, too, and you can bet your last deflated dollar that the bowling green was not a wrong steer. So next time you come to town, Judge Landell, you'll know where to find your man—the court room, Mallow's drug store, or the bowling green.

There goes the bell until next Wednesday. Hang on your tickets, folks! We're going to have another election in town soon.

TEACHERS IN SESSION AT LAGUNA

Junior College And High School Groups From Fullerton Meet

LAGUNA BEACH.—The annual faculty meeting of the Fullerton Union High school and Junior college was held last evening in the dining room of Hotel Laguna, where interesting travel talks were the feature of the gathering. Dr. Frank M. Dowling, trustee emeritus, gave the invocation.

Following dinner, Miss Anita Sheppard gave an amusing and inspiring address of welcome to Miss Valborg Linde giving the response. Miss Ruth Tilton sang two vocal numbers, accompanied by Miss Wallace.

Miss Dorothy Shaw and Miss Erma Tapp, who traveled together through Norway, Denmark, Sweden and England this summer, both gave refreshing accounts of their experiences in the various countries. They spoke of curious customs and odd types of transportation encountered, and related many humorous anecdotes of the people to illustrate their points.

Bruce Clark told about his trip around the world as assistant director of a tour which was organized in London. He observed that everywhere prices were exorbitantly high, and transportation schedules subject to frequent changes.

In Italy, Mr. Clark saw the streets teeming with marching soldiers, and a feeling everywhere that something was going to happen. Railroad stations are being enlarged to accommodate 10 to 20 tracks for the movement of troops.

Another speaker was Miss Geneva Johnson, who told of her experiences in the Canadian wilderness. Albert Launer spoke for the board of trustees. Lillian Rivers acted as chairman of the entertainment committee, including Ruth Tilton, Ruth Plimpton, Helen Dryer, Thornton Lodge and Bruce Clark.

Nearly 150 teachers were present at the meeting, which was presided over by Principal Louise E. Plummer.

ANAHEIM LIONS HEAR TALK

ANAHEIM.—Members of the Anaheim Lions club saw pictures of Alaska at their regular meeting yesterday. J. L. Crisswell, singer agent for a teamship company, sang songs and giving a talk on the northern country.

Chairman Frank Tausch introduced the speaker. Dr. Kirtland Parks was inducted as a new member.

Arrangements were announced completed for the county council meeting, to be held here Sept. 16, when 400 Lions and their families from Orange and San Diego counties are expected to attend.

EASTERN STAR ASSOCIATION HAS ALL-DAY SESSION

ORANGE.—Mrs. Sherman Gifford, who is vacationing on Balboa, Laguna, was hostess to the Past Matron's association of the Eastern Star yesterday. A covered-dish luncheon was served at noon.

Mrs. W. B. Dennis invited the group to spend October 4 and 5 at her cabin at Lake Arrowhead. Members present were Mrs. Homer Bascom, Mrs. W. B. Dennis, Mrs. Ann Knuth, Mrs. Dorothy Ross, Mrs. Dora Smith and Miss May Willis, Santa Ana; Mrs. Lillian Edwards, Miss Edna Case, and two visitors, Vera Jean Bailey and Everett Ross.

There's a Reason for Smart Women's FAITH in JOURNAL ADS!

You've had this experience, haven't you? You see an ad some place, or hear about a sale, and when you get there the next day you're disgusted to find it isn't anything out of the ordinary at all?

If you have, you should know this. In many ways The Journal has discouraged advertising of the sort that builds up false hopes. Advertisers know they can't let their enthusiasm get ahead of their merchandise when they tell you about it in The Journal. Too much space has been devoted in this paper to shopping advice. Women know what's a bargain and what isn't after they've read The Journal for a while.

That protection is what gives women their faith in The Journal ads.

You Can Trust What You See in The Journal Because Advertisers Know They Can Trust The Journal Not to Accept Anything But Bona Fide Values!

BEATING SOME OF THEM TO THE PUNCH

In a few days—a couple weeks at the most—the wise ones will be telling you which grid team is going to win which race and which player is going to be the best on the best team and so on.

Now we have pooled our humble prognosticating efforts with those of that gambler, Willie, Wagner, Willie, and for the edification of those that are credulous enough to take any faith in us, we come up with a few observations.

Like most all the rest of the guessers, Willie and your reporter feel that Tiny Thornhill's Stanford Redskins will be the standout team of the country. And that if they get in the Rose bowl game again they will still be the nation's top aggregation. Lightning seldom strikes twice in the same place but if it does hit the Pasadena oval again this New Year's day perhaps the invaders will be on the wrong end of said sky flashes.

Because they may be slow to start there is every chance they will lose a game—or come uncomfortably close—to one of the rarities of the sport, a tie.

Only opponents for Stanford are San Jose State, San Francisco, U. C. L. A., Washington, Santa Clara, U. S. C., Montana and California. This winds the Palo Alto up on Nov. 23.

Willie and yours truly think the Pacific coast team likely to have the most fun this year is Santa Clara. For a comparatively small school they have a gigantic almost Napoleonic—schedule ahead of them, to-wit: San Francisco, Washington, Fresno State, California, Columbia, Stanford, St. Mary's, Loyola and Texas Christian. Fresno State is the only team that can in any sense be regarded as not "big time."

Another thing Willie and this chronicler have figured out and by ourselves is that the coming season will see a distinct increase in popularity of Friday games. St. Mary's will have three Sabbath contests lined up and will profit heartily from them.

For the coast's biggest disappointment, after much insistence from Willie, we nominate U. C. L. A. The Uclan Bruins have a schedule as tough as a gang of stevedores and few breaks in between. If they come through without scars it will be an epoch making season for them. But we can't picture 'em doing it just now. Look: Utah, Oregon State, Stanford and a rest; then Oregon, California, Southern Methodist, Hawaii, Loyola and another breathing spell. Then Idaho and St. Mary's.

Everyone of course wants to know about U. S. C. So do we. Just now, our belief is that the Trojans will be a vastly improved bunch over last year, but the battle marks of a brutal 1934 campaign will still be seen and felt. There are still a few aches on the squad. But things should be better, especially since nothing great is expected of them. Coach and Jones spotted a bright light the other day when he said: "We have no all-American on the squad this year."

Bishop possesses a pair of two-year lettermen in Del Jones, quarterback, and Cliff Hamilton, fullback; and two halfbacks who showed promise last fall, Cruze Rangle and Cliff Hargrave.

Valencia's best linemen, all with a year of experience, appear to be John Reyes and Howard Rose at end, Larry Nelson and Joe Jamison at tackle, Dick Stafford and Ed Mier or Jessie Couch at guard, and Harry Heppner at center.

'LEAPING LENA' MYSTERY VICTIM OF SOMETHING

CHICAGO, Sept. 7. (AP)—"Leaping Lena" Levy, sister and part manager of Kingfish Levin, pugilist, was in the Jackson Park hospital today, but even the police professed they did not know why.

Her physician, Dr. W. M. Sherman, said in reply to earlier reports she had been injured that she was suffering from an "attack of nerves."

COATES BACK IN OLD TIME FORM AGAIN

Neva And Rodgers Clout Homers; Jim Circuits To Help Local Cause

Huntington Beach had a new but unpleasant theme song today—"I saw Stars."

Santa Ana, in a bewildering attack unlike recent performances, and as shocking as the 1933 earthquake, scored a remarkable 5-2 upset over the Oilers in the third round of the National Night Ball league play-offs before more than 2,000 fans at the Municipal bowl last night.

Doing out only six hits while his teammates combined Louie Neva for 11 safeties, Jimmy Coates flashed his old-time form in the box, and helped win his own game with a home run in the sixth.

The victory, following the most exciting recent performance, was a sweet revenge for the 7-1 and 9-5 pastings administered by Huntington Beach, and naturally will serve to encourage Tom Denney's Stars in the final stages of the seven-game play-off which concludes at the Oiler park Monday night.

Joe Rodgers, Huntington Beach's shortstop and manager, clouted a liner over the head of Leavitt Daley in right field for a homer in the second; and his Russian runner, Neva, whaled one of Coates' offerings into the leftfield stands for a circuit blow in the fourth. That was the extent of the Oiler scoring.

Early Lead Erased

Huntington Beach's early 1-0 lead was erased in the third when George Preble singled to right field, advanced on Tommy Young's sacrifice and Rod Ballard's grounder, and scored on Denney's bounce to short.

Neva's round-tripper put the Oilers ahead again, 2-1, in the fourth, single to right field, and Conrad gave Santa Ana a tying run in the fifth. Coates' homer, a grounder that rolled deep into rightfield, transferred the lead to the Stars in the sixth.

Coates Fans 10

Jimmy's trip around the circuit added insult to injury, for on the fourth, single to right field, and Conrad gave Santa Ana a tying run in the fifth. Coates' homer, a grounder that rolled deep into rightfield, transferred the lead to the Stars in the sixth.

When the Stars gained the lead on Coates' homer in the sixth, the change in the plate ran led off with a single to right and Merle Urbine was safe on a fielder's choice. Both advanced on Rebohn's grounder, Conrad scoring on a wild pitch and Urbine coming around on Leavitt Daley's timely single down the leftfield sidelines.

The old saw that goes, "first in war, first in peace, last in the American league" may be applied to the Washington Senators again.

Bucs Keep Spot in National League Chase

Triumph Over Brooklyn Nears Scoring Record For Old Circuit

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer

The Pittsburgh Pirates, who have been counted out of the National league's pennant race as often as a British heavyweight, still must be reckoned with before the flag is awarded.

Given a terrific setback by their Labor day double defeat after a 10-game winning streak had begun to arouse hopes for something better than fourth place, the Bucs began a comeback against Brooklyn. They showed yesterday that they can be sufficiently tough on occasions when they pulled a scoring feat of record or near record proportions to beat the Dodgers 13 to 0 yesterday.

In Every Inning

The Pirates scored in every one of their eight innings at bat while Cy Blanton hurled a nine-hit shutout for his 17th victory of the season. The only thing that kept that from being a record was seven big league clubs have scored in nine straight innings of a game. The record books, however, fail to show a shutout in such a game nor a similar victory by a home team in the senior circuit. Despite this triumph the Bucs remained 8½ games behind the league-leading Cardinals.

It took a late comeback behind the expert relief pitching of Dizzy Dean to give St. Louis its third straight victory over the Braves 6-4 and maintain the Cardinal margins of three games over the Giants and 2½ games over the Cubs, who remain in third place through a quirk of the percentages.

Giants Blow Lead

The Giants, after blowing a five-run lead for Hal Schumacher, came through in the tenth with a pair of runs to defeat the Reds, 7-5.

The Cubs also had to go 10 innings to turn back the Phillies 3-2 as Joe Bowman gave only six hits in a mound duel with Lon Warneke but Augie Galan finally broke up the game with his tenth homer of the season after tying the score with a triple in the eighth.

The St. Louis Browns threatened to abandon their role as cellar champions of the American league when they turned back the Senators twice in the day's only American league games. They won the opener 11-8 and the 10-inning afterpiece 2-1.

Catcher Al Rebohn deserves a world of credit. Painfully injuring his leg on a slide into first base in the second inning, he played the next seven periods with a severe charley horse. His steadiness back of the plate ran a tremendous aid to Coates. Another member of the Stars, and one who should have been in the lineup long ago, performed brilliantly at second. He was George Preble, who gathered two singles in four at-bats, and caught a blazing grounder off the bat of Louie Neva for a fast double play in the ninth.

Leavitt Daley Singles

When the Stars gained the lead on Coates' homer in the sixth, the change in the plate ran led off with a single to right and Merle Urbine was safe on a fielder's choice. Both advanced on Rebohn's grounder, Conrad scoring on a wild pitch and Urbine coming around on Leavitt Daley's timely single down the leftfield sidelines.

The old saw that goes, "first in war, first in peace, last in the American league" may be applied to the Washington Senators again.

Jock Has Plenty

Jock Sutherland, the ex-dentist who tutors Pittsburgh teams to nation-wide prominence, will have another horde of husky quarterbacks around which to mould his 1935 team. Izzy Weinstein is Jock's main hope for big results this year.

PITT ELEVEN HAS HORDE OF GIANTS

(This is the fifth of a series of stories on the prospects of major college football eleven.)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 7. (AP)—If Pittsburgh has nothing else this year—except the usual horde of massive football players and as tough a schedule as there is in the country—the Panther tradition of quarterbacks who look like overgrown tackles will be maintained.

This year, with only Verne Baxter on one end and Bob Larue at halfback surviving the mighty array that lost only to Minnesota in 1934, the new quarterback will be an Arnold Greene, a 205-pound junior from Huntington, Pa., successor to Miller Munnies and before him Bom Hogan, a couple of kicking beremoths who never saw in college the lighter side of 210.

Job for Doc

Greene, one of the bright lights in a dark world for Dr. Jock Sutherland, the Scotch dentist professor who in the past 10 years at Pitt has coached teams that won 79, lost 16 and tied 8.

"He calls signals like a trainman, kicks like a kangaroo and runs like a steam locomotive," says the Pittsburgher calmly.

Sutherland must turn chiefly to sophomores to fill the breaches left by such stalwarts as Charley Hartwig and Ken Ormiston, guards, Center George Stowell, Fullback Izzy Weinstein and Heine Welsch, tackles. Bob Hoel and Stan Olejniczak, Mike Nickisick at halfback, Harvey Rooker at end, and Munjas.

"Our best teams are always seniors," Sutherland says. "That's what we need last year. As the game develops I am coming to believe that it is experience more than anything else that counts most. A sophomore thinks he knows, but he just does not have sufficient knowledge of the game. Sophomores make mistakes, and one mistake these days costs a ball game."

Sutherland feels that if the Panthers can get past Notre Dame, beaten for three straight years, everything will turn out all right.

With Ernie (Dirty) Dusek signed to meet Vincent Lopez for the world title in a three-fall finish match Wednesday night at Los Angeles, Promoter Jack Daro yesterday signed Nick Lutze as a possible foe for the titleholder in event Lutze defeated Dusek when they clash at the Orange County Athletic club Monday night in the biggest wrestling program ever arranged for mat fans of this section.

"I'm taking no chance," said Daro in signing Lutze, "Nick is just the fellow who is apt to beat Dusek in spite of the fact that the biggest wrestling program ever arranged for mat fans of this section."

ORANGE NINE FACES TEST TONIGHT

Santa Barbara Defeated By 20-30's; Hollywood Is Next Opponent

Fresh from a 4-3 triumph over the Santa Barbara nine that eliminated Riverside's defending, champions, Orange's 20-30's combat Hollywood's Fredericks at 7 o'clock tonight on Wrigley field in the quarter-final round of Southern California's amateur softball tournament.

The battery of Pitcher Roger Larimer and Catcher Whitey Fee, largely responsible for the club's spectacular progress, will represent Orange again tonight, according to Manager Oscar Stutheit.

Pee blasted a home run to feature Orange's attack on Santa Barbara. The 20-30s were limited to five hits—the same number issued by their Larimer—but the blows came at a time when Santa Barbara's defense was wobbly.

WESTERN TANK STARS CLASH

By PAUL ZIMMERMAN

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 7. (AP)—In a meet with a distinct Olympic flavor, the Pacific coast's leading swimmers plus a handful of stars from other sections of the country meet here today to decide the far western amateur athletic union championships.

For at the site of the tenth Olympiad aquatic events some of the nation's most promising candidates for the 1936 team will participate in the two-day event with the money going to the American Olympic fund to send them to Berlin.

HAL SCHUMACHER, Giants—Gained 19th victory of the season as he continued his spell over the Reds.

DIZZY DEAN, Cards—Batted and pitched Cards to win over Braves.

CY BLANTON, Pirates—Shut out Dodgers to gain 17th victory.

While the Seals and Ducks were on their respective rampages, the third-place Missions were encountering difficulties and wound up by dropping their fourth straight to Los Angeles, with 3-2 win over the Angels into fourth place ahead of Seattle.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 7. (AP) The Barney Ross-Baby Joe Gans battle last night went pretty much as expected, with Ross winning via a knockout in the second round, but it was a good fight while it lasted.

Tiger Chief Spending $55,000 on Title Hopes

By EARL J. HILLIGAN

DETROIT, Sept. 7. (AP)—Frank J. Navin has $55,000 that says his Detroit Tigers will be in the world series next month, but don't try to get him to admit that the hustling Bengals have anything like a strangle hold on the American league flag.

The Tiger club president isn't willing to bet the $55,000 that his club wins the pennant. But he is laying that sum "on the line" at the rate of $300 an hour for improvements to Navin field necessary for the staging of baseball annual classic.

"It's a gamble we have to make, we can't wait any longer," he said today. "I'm not saying the Tigers will win the American league flag—that's not certain."

Navin said it cost the Detroit Baseball Co. approximately $85,000 to build extra bleachers, condition the field and make other improvements for the 1934 world series. This year the cost, he said, will be about $10,000 less.

Asked if he thought the series against the second-place Yankees would settle the race, Navin replied with a rare smile: "Why, we might not even play the Yankees—if it keeps on raining!"

About 125 workmen are busy re-roofing the infield, moving the scoreboard to right field and building bleachers which will increase the park's seating capacity from 29,000 to about 46,000.

BERT KIDD NOW ELIGIBLE

Fullerton Has 14 Veterans

Fullerton, that traditional rival Santa Ana engages every Thanksgiving day, is predicting better times for itself in the Eastern Junior college football conference this fall.

Good—but nothing spectacular—for the past two seasons, Art (Lucky) Nunn's Yellowjackets, with 14 returning lettermen and a fair supply of talented preps, hope to repay Riverside and Santa Ana in full for the punishment directed at the up-county eleven since 1932.

Bert Kidd, sensational punter who consistently boots the pigskin 70 yards, has returned to eligibility, and will be among the 14 monogram bearers answering Nunn's first call next Tuesday. Kidd is a halfback who gained ground against every eleven in the conference last year except Santa Ana.

DI MAGGIO WINS FOR SEALS

By the Associated Press

It borders on monotony to say it, but Joe DiMaggio's batting won two more games for the San Francisco Seals last night and as a result Manager Frank O'Doul's Pacific coast baseball league leaders maintained their one-game margin over the fighting Portland Ducks.

The big Seal outfielder poked out three hits in four trips to the plate in the first game, batting in three runs and scoring two himself as the frisky Friscans defeated Hollywood 8-7, in the opener, and then poked out a home run in the fourth inning of the second game to provide the Seals' 2 to 1 victory. The score was tied when DiMaggio hit for the circuit.

One of Portland's largest crowds, officially counted as 11,378, turned out to watch the Ducks keep up their race at Seattle's expense. Also playing a doubleheader, Portland turned back the Indians, 5-3 and 5-2. Seattle plugged away in both games, but was unable to overcome early leads.

COOK STARTS WORKOUTS MONDAY

County's Best Preppers Lined Up to Work for Junior College Eleven

Enthusiastic over his success in rounding up many of the county's finest preps, Little Bill Cook, officially begins his ninth season as Santa Ana Junior college's football coach at Poly field Monday afternoon.

Candidates—new and old—will be assigned grid togs in Andrews gymnasium on the high school campus beginning at 1 o'clock. A brief workout will follow.

A nice-looking chap from Texas, Walt Durham, will be one of the few out-of-state prospects. Durham, center and fullback, weighs 178 pounds, and reports with three years of varsity experience at Comanche High school in the Lone Star state.

Frankie Ochoa, backfield star from Anaheim's prep champions, and a teammate, Ernie Villaseor (he was in town yesterday), will be new additions from the up-county area, which also is sending its co-captains, Les Minder and Jack Dugan—two capable guards—Hal Mossman, an end; and possibly Vernon Hyton, brother of "Cap" Hyton of Santa Ana's 1929 Southland champs.

From Orange will come such hot numbers as Oliver McCarty, all-county prep league quarterback, brilliant passer; Art Craft, a sturdy guard and brother of Ray Craft, two-year track star here; and probably Les Valentine, fine wingman. Ed Stanley, 175-pound tackle and fullback, underwent an appendicitis operation two months ago, and may not be in condition to report, although he plans to enroll. Arnold Maahs, 180-pound guard, is now in Reno, but may return to Orange in time to become interested in football here.

Phoenix Will Enroll

Newport Harbor has made a practice of sending most of his outstanding guards clear to Fullerton, but this district will send Santa Ana at least two choice prospects—Dave Phoenix, halfback and Sutherland, half tackle.

Garden Grove points with pride to the talent it is submitting—Sam Bragg, all-league guard; Bob Spray, husky center; Ellisworth Teter and Harry Starley will arrive from Tustin.

Orv Skidmore, ex-Tustin backfield flash, may enroll from Laguna.

Dick DeSmet Coming

Two crack guards—Dick DeSmet, who gained all-Coast league recognition last fall; and Howard Rash, stocky regular on "Tex" Oliver's 1932 champion team—will arrive from Tustin.

Clarence Bolton, six-foot end who weighs around 190; and Byron Nott, medium-sized fullback, are on their way from Santa Ana High school. Another possibility is Ray Clark, halfback who Cook believes would be a great addition.

Alvin Rebohn, U. S. C. athlete and perhaps Santa Ana High school's greatest all-time quarterback, replaces Blanchard Beatty as Cook's side center. Particular attention to the Don backfield, and will do most of the scouting.

Returning lettermen are Walt Hickman, Eastern all-conference fullback; Bruce Harris and Max Anderson, safeties; Ralph Comstock, halfback; Dick Moore, full; Harold Youel and Bruce Martin, centers; Nelson Rogers and Harold Lundblade, tackles; Hal Portoff, guard and end.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7. (AP)—What with steady rains and correspondingly few games, there was very little action in the battles for the major league batting titles during the past week and what there was didn't go far toward settling the arguments.

The biggest stir was provided by the Washington veteran, Buddy Myer, who clambered from fourth place to second among the American league's leaders.

Myer added three points to his average, bringing it up to .343. In the National league, where the race is practically settled,

VAUGHAN GIVES PONT BUT HOLDS BATTING LEAD

Pittsburgh's Arky Vaughan of Fullerton, Calif., the leader, lost one point and his nearest rival, Joe Medwick of St. Louis, gained one. That still left them 28 points apart.

Star Dust

There were 1735 paid admissions at the Star-Oiler game last night, with gross receipts amounting to $378.45, according to a check with City Auditor Lloyd Banks, who estimated the crowd at better than 2000. The first game at the Bowl set a record of $428.65. Huntington Beach's home game drew $241.85.

The Oilers unknowingly played without a leftfielder for a brief period in the seventh. Preble grounded a foul ball to third-baseman Murray who threw to first. George Murray thought the side had been retired, and raced for the dug-out. Neva cut loose with a pitch before Murray was missed.

Fans exercised their lungs much more than they did in the first two games, which were dull compared to last night's thriller.

'TOP HAT' OPENS AT WEST COAST NEW TWIN BILL

FRED ASTAIRE PRESENTING NEW STEPS

Ginger Rogers Teamed With Nimble-Footed Ace of Dancers

That top team of entertainers, Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire, will be seen at the West Coast theater in their latest picture, "Top Hat," starting today.

The big production number in the film is "Piccolino," a novelty dance which is said to rival the "Continental" in rhythm and interest.

Astaire dances five new numbers in this new and fast-stepping film, and, according to advance notices, outdoes himself in the rapidity and cleverness of former dance routines. His partner in several numbers is Miss Rogers, who endeared herself to millions in her former pictures when she was co-starred with Astaire.

The story concerns itself with a plot which turns out to be a brilliant light comedy, according to critics. The theme of the story is of a mistaken identity, with the comical situations which follow. Miss Rogers mistakes Astaire, an actor, for the husband of Helen Broderick, her friend, Edward Everett Horton is the hubby.

The cast in this entertaining musical comedy includes such popular players as Erik Rhodes and Eric Blone.

Short subjects on the program include a sports reel, "Prince, King of Dogs," a color cartoon, "Neighbors," and World News events.

NEW HAT CLEANING STORE OPENS TODAY

One of the finest and most modern men and women hat cleaning establishments in Orange county today opened its doors at its new location, 308 West Fourth street.

Everything about the shop is new, except the name, The New York Hat Works, and its owner, N. P. (Nick) Roussos. Both are old to the Santa Ana trade, having been here for the past 20 years.

Mr. Roussos also has added a department of new fall hats, in all the late shades and styles, and he invites the general public to call and see the values he is offering.

The most modern equipment for the perfect cleaning and blocking of hats has been installed to make one's old hat as good as new.

SECOND TURNKEY FOR JAIL NAMED

Steps to insure absolute safety in the handling of prisoners here were taken Friday when Sheriff Logan Jackson announced that in the future there will be at least two regularly employed turnkeys on duty in the county jail at all times. In order to carry out the new program, Sheriff Jackson has appointed Jack Blakeney, Tustin, to a newly created position on the jail force.

Sheriff Jackson announced that the move is being made as a precautionary measure. In the past, there has been only one turnkey on duty in the jail office at night, the night man being assisted by a jail trustee.

Last year's total production of closed cars in the United States was 2,242,874, 98.8 per cent of all cars produced and the highest number and percentage in the history of the industry, according to a report received by the Automobile Club of Southern California.

LAUREL AND HARDY STAR IN NEW COMEDY HERE SUNDAY

Opening at the Broadway theater Sunday, that inimitable pair of comics, Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy, come to delight Santa Ana theatergoers, filling half of a double bill, the other component of which is the new Jimmy Dunn film, "Welcome Home," in which he shows with Arline Judge.

The Laurel and Hardy picture, "Bonnie Scotland," features the two laugh-provokers in a hilarious parody of "Bengal Lancers." Enticed to Scotland by a relative's will, the two find themselves presented with kilties and a bagpipe. The adventuresome and humorous wanderings take them across

PROGRAM OF JUNIOR COLLEGE 'FRESHMAN DAYS' IS TOLD

Complete programs for "Freshman Days," to take place Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and plans for registration on Thursday and Friday at Santa Ana Junior college were released today by L. L. Beeman, faculty chairman of the annual matriculation week.

New students and entering freshmen will meet at the junior college campus on North Main street Monday morning for preliminary registration and for an assembly in the Baptist church auditorium. A luncheon will be given new students in the cafeteria. The afternoon will be given over to the aptitude test required of all entering students and to physical examinations.

Assemblies will be held each morning in the church auditorium. The Subject A English examination will be given Tuesday afternoon for all those students who have not already taken it, said Director D. K. Hammond. A student assembly during which members of the Associated Student executive board will be introduced will be held Wednesday afternoon followed by a dance free to both new and old students in the east lobby of the gymnasium.

The complete program for "Freshman Days" follows:

Monday, Sept. 9
Registration of new students and distribution of copies of El Don, college newspaper, on the lawn in front of College hall by the greeting committee composed of the members of the Spinners service club with Mary Lou McFarland, chairman, and Calvin Flint, faculty adviser, from 8 until 10 a. m. Tour of the men's and women's lounges and College hall directed by the hospitality committee composed of the Moav service club, Phyllis Hannah, president, and the A. E. H. Charles Roemer, president.

An assembly of students and faculty in the Baptist church auditorium, usher provided by members of Las Gitanas service club, Jean McAuley, chairman; L. L. Beeman presiding. The program will consist of talks by Director D. K. Hammond; Charles Roemer, president of the Associated students; Ronald Cruickshank and Gertrude Gentes, alumni. Musical numbers will consist of vocal solos by Robert Brown, accompanied by Miss Ruth Armstrong, and Lynwood Young, junior college student.

Tour of the science, art, and gymnasium buildings, followed by a complimentary luncheon in the cafeteria for new students. Aptitude test required of all entering students given from 1 to 4 p. m. in College hall, room 110, under the direction of A. D. Hoenes. Students not taking this examination will report for the physical examinations in the Board of Education building or for consultation with their advisers.

Tuesday, Sept. 10
Short-hand test in room 110, College hall, at 8 o'clock under the supervision of Miss Genevieve Humiston for classification of students wishing to continue the subject.

A second assembly will be held in the Baptist church at 10 a. m. consisting of a vocal solo by I. Fields, accompanied by Bernard Fields; introduction of Mrs. Eleanor Northcross, dean of women,

DOUBLE BILL TO CLOSE TONIGHT

"Super Speed," romantic drama, and "Hot Tip," comedy drama, will show for the last time tonight at the Broadway theater.

Zasu Pitts and James Gleason are starred in "Hot Tip," which features Gleason as an expert hand-capper and Pitts as his wife who is adverse to all forms of gambling, especially horse racing. How Gleason gets in a bad fix by betting money that is not his, losing it, and how he eventually becomes the owner of a race horse that pulls him out of his financial difficulties, is the theme of the film.

"Super Speed" tells the story of an all-American quarterback who blazes his way to love and fame through a maze of intrigue. Roaring autos and speedboats, thrilling upsets and hair-raising adventures make the film exciting. Randy Rogers, Florence Rice, Mary Carlisle, Charley Grapewin and Arthur Hohl have leading roles.

CRIMES FEWER, WOMEN HEAR

"Two out of every hundred criminals are women," F. W. Emerson, public relations representative of the Los Angeles sheriff's office, told the League of Women Voters at a meeting last evening in the Y. M. C. A. building.

The speaker divided criminals into three types: Prisoners, whose crimes are committed more or less unknowingly; lawbreakers, whose crimes are a result of indifference to law; and criminals, who plan their activities deliberately.

"The crime situation is considerably better than it was two years ago," the speaker said. "This is due partly to the eight Los Angeles county road camps, each of which affords an opportunity for 60 men to go on their honor and work, earning an allowance of 50 cents a day, from which they can draw three dollars a month. The rest is placed in a fund for them."

He also discussed "economic crimes" rising out of the financial depression.

For the first time in the league's history, the southern council, including Los Angeles, San Pedro, Long Beach and Santa Ana league, will meet in Santa Ana on Thursday, Sept. 26. The convocation will open at 10 a. m. with adjournment slated for 3 o'clock. Mrs. J. D. Campbell, one of the state directors, is planning for the meeting.

GIRL GIVES PIANO RECITAL AT GARDEN GROVE

GARDEN GROVE.—Miss Ruth Muriel Keele, talented 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Keele, was presented by her teacher, Mrs. J. Orland Smith, in a piano recital at the Keele home recently. Guests were from Long Beach, Santa Ana, Los Angeles, Covina and Garden Grove. The young artist will enter high school this year.

Miss Faire Virgin completed a summer course at U. S. C. this week.

MISSIONARY GROUP MEETS AT ORANGE

ORANGE.—The first meeting of the new year for the Women's Missionary society of the Baptist church was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ben Morse, West Chapman avenue.

Mrs. William H. Patrick led devotions. Study of the afternoon was presented under direction of Mrs. Lida Heeter. The president, Mrs. Alice Burns, presided at a short business meeting.

City Clerk T. H. Elijah, Mrs. Elijah and daughter, Virginia, spent Thursday at the San Diego exposition, the first day of Mr. Elijah's vacation. Today they will leave for a trip which will include San Francisco, Napa and Vancouver, B. C.

Houseguests of the C. W. Holsters, South Cambridge street, are Dr. and Mrs. MacGiffert of Troy, N. Y., former friends of the family. Dr. MacGiffert is teacher of mathematics in the post-graduate department of Rensselaer Polytechnic institute at Troy.

Mrs. Stanley Mansur, North Pine street, and sister, Mrs. Earl Mehner of Venice, are en route to Aberdeen, S. D., and St. Paul Minn., where they will visit relatives. They will be accompanied by the aunt, Mrs. Lydia Cecil of St. Paul, who will spend several weeks in California.

IS DUE SOON

Beginning at the Broadway theater next Thursday, John Blondell and Glenda Farrell, comedienne, will show for a three-day run in their newest picture, "We're in the Money," with Nancy Carroll and Lloyd Nolan in "Atlantic Adventure" as the other half of the double program.

"We're in the Money" is characterized as riotous comedy, spiced by an unusual romance and dramatic moments. It depicts the adventures of a pair of gold-seeking ladies, and adventures and mishaps are many when these two get adrift.

Phil Regan, former radio singing star, is featured prominently in the new production. Ross Alexander plays the lead role opposite Miss Blondell, and Hugh Herbert gets his usual share of laughs.

The story of "Atlantic Adventure" tells of an ex-newspaper man who stows away aboard a trans-oceanic liner, stumbles across a huge crime machine, throws the proverbial "monkey wrench," and wins rehabilitation for himself. He wins, too, incidentally, the lovely girl.

Lloyd Nolan, long a popular New York stage star, takes his first important flicker role in this picture, opposite Nancy Carroll. Harry Langdon, well-beloved funster, also is prominently cast. The picture was directed by Albert S. Rogell. News and comedy complete the bill.

How Counties In State Got Their Names

The story of how California counties derived their names is an interesting part of the history of the Golden State. Believing that the thousands of tourists who annually motor over the state's great highway system would like to know how the counties they visit came by their names, Director of Public Works Earl Warren has had prepared from state records a series of brief stories of the origin and meaning of the names of the counties of California, including a few salient facts about each county.

CONTRA COSTA COUNTY

Created Feb. 18, 1850. One of the original 27 California counties. This county originally included what now is known as Alameda county, and because of its relationship to San Francisco county, on the west side of San Francisco bay, it was called in Spanish Contra Costa, or "opposite coast," lying as it does on the opposite coast or eastern shore of San Francisco bay.

Although one of California's smallest counties, Contra Costa combines farming, manufacturing and desirable living conditions to such a high state that the wealth per capita has ranked first among all counties in the United States for years. Statistics show a population density of 110.1 per square mile as compared with the state average of 36.5. The county raises over 30 farm products and has more than 50 factory products. One-eighth of the world's oil output passes through Contra Costa county, with four of the largest oil refineries in existence operating.

As the deep waters of San Francisco bay, San Pablo bay and Carquinez straits provide accessibility for ships of all description, Contra Costa is the only county in California boasting 10 harbors of commerce.

Almost in the geographic center of the county, Mount Diablo towers to a height of 3,900 feet, commanding a view of the territory embraced in at least 35 of California's 58 counties.

Three of the greatest bridges in the nation enter Contra Costa from two neighboring counties—the Southern Pacific bridge across Suisun bay, the Carquinez bridge across Carquinez straits, and the Antioch bridge across the San Joaquin river at Antioch. Population: 78,608. Area: 714 square miles.

OFFER PRINTER, NURSE CLASSES

To be a printer or a nurse—those two possibilities loom this semester for the first time for students attending Santa Ana Junior college.

Apprenticeship training in printing will be given at a daily class from 12:30 to 4:30 p. m. for printing and allied subjects. Morning hours can be devoted to other subjects. Full credit as an apprentice in printing will be given students taking the course.

Twenty students are expected to register for the pre-nursing course. Students completing the one-year course in pre-nursing will be qualified to enter the Orange county hospital training school, and at the end of 28 months receive the registered nurse title.

Federal aid will be available to needy students this year, in amounts from $5 to $20, according to the number of hours worked by students. Applications for work will be available during registration week.

SANTA ANA'S NEW CITY HALL TO BE READY FOR OCCUPANCY NOV. 1

BUILDING TO BE OPEN TO USE JAN. 1

PWA Inspector Gives Cost Data; Layout Of Offices Told

Santa Ana's city hall will be ready for occupancy Nov. 1. On that date workmen will leave the structure, and municipal offices will be able to start moving in their equipment and furniture. The new building should be open for business at least by Jan. 1.

News that the city hall will be completed by Nov. 1 was made public today by V. W. Houghton, resident engineer and inspector for the Public Works administration, who also provided information on labor and other costs for the structure.

90 Men on Job

At present, he said, there are 90 men working on the project, with the weekly payroll about $2400. When one-third of the project was finished 19,000 man-hours of labor had been completed and $20,000 had been paid in wages. During that period, there had been an average of 68 men on the job each day, with an average weekly payroll of $2200. Mr. Houghton expressed satisfaction with the type of work that has been done on the building, adding that every man employed as a laborer on the project is a resident of Santa Ana. To date, $32,000 has been paid in salaries for labor.

It was further learned that the government has granted an additional $6000 to the city, over and above its original grant of $35,000. The grant was made to the city as the result of unforeseen additions and improvements that became necessary as construction progressed. These new developments increased the cost of the building approximately $18,000, Mr. Houghton said.

Tells Office Locations

In explaining the general set-up of the building, Councilman Joseph P. Smith mapped the locations of the various offices and departments. On the first floor will be located the water department, city clerk's office, city auditor's office, the police department, the press room, and the city court. The building department, city engineer, electrical inspector, and several other departmental offices will be located on the second floor. The third floor will contain the council chamber, offices for the planning commission and forestry board, and private offices for each of the councilmen.

Yesterday Mr. Smith conducted Former Mayor John Knapp and a party of friends through the building, explaining the various changes that had been made. In one particular instance, by adding a few extra square feet of concrete, he showed how two more rooms were made possible. He displayed with pride five second-hand doors to vaults procured at a cost of only $670. The doors were purchased from a Los Angeles firm. Mr. Smith said each would have cost approximately $1000 if new ones were purchased.

KEEPS EYE ON CHINA FOR ROOSEVELT

NANKING, Sept. 6. (AP)—So that President Roosevelt may be kept fully posted on the effects of the American silver purchasing policy in China, Dr. J. Lossing Buck is making a survey tour of this vast silver-standard country.

Dr. Buck, whose novelist wife, Pearl Buck, recently obtained a divorce at Reno, has for many years been head of the agricultural economics department of the University of Nanking. He is an "old China hand" and speaks the language fluently.

Immediately after announcement from Washington that he had been made an observer for the treasury, he set off on a swing through the southern provinces. He had already toured north and central China unofficially.

Fullerton's Commonwealth Park Baseball Setup Wins Big League Scout's Praise

(This is the thirteenth of a series of articles having to do with the establishment and development of Fullerton's two parks, outstanding beauty spots and recreational institutions of Southern California. The series is intended to be informative to those cities which do not enjoy park facilities. Santa Ana is listed in the latter classification.)

By ROCH BRADSHAW

Fullerton built its baseball field and grandstand in Commonwealth park for recreation and not for advertising; but it is getting the advertising just the same. It's just the natural result of having a good ball park. The advertising is free.

The most recent evidence that the park is attracting attention to Fullerton came in a letter to Harry May, secretary of the chamber of commerce, from a baseball fan in Colorado Springs, Colo.

It seems that W. E. Essick, head scout for the St. Louis Cardinals, had been to Fullerton and looked over the baseball setup in Commonwealth park. He evidently got a mighty good impression of the park for the Colorado fan. A Mr. Clark, said Mr. Essick praised the park so highly that he wanted to find out more about it.

As a result Mr. May got out his camera, went to the park and snapped a group of pictures. Mr. Clark wanted to see what the grandstand, diamond and fences looked like. He also wanted detailed information on the cost of the project and its maintenance.

The Fullerton baseball setup is one of the best and most complete for a city of its size anywhere in the Southland. One of its unusual features is the fence around the diamond which can be raised to seven feet during a pay game, and lowered to ordinary height at other times. It is partially screened by a hedge when lowered. The field itself is slightly larger than Wrigley field.

Stone pillars at intervals along the fence, and a stone ticket booth with tiled roof add to the attractiveness of the ball park.

The ball park, of course, is only one of the features of the park system which has attracted attention to Fullerton. Hillcrest park, with its variety of natural beauty, also has become well known.

NAZI PROTEST MADE AFTER 5 FREED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7. (AP)—The German government lodged a formal protest with the state department today against remarks made by Magistrate Louis R. Brodsky in New York City yesterday when he dismissed charges against five men arrested in the Bremen incident.

The men had been charged with unlawful assembly after the swastika flag was torn down from the German liner Bremen at her New York dock July 26 and thrown into the Hudson river.

BERLIN, Sept. 7. (AP)—The propaganda ministry disclosed today that Dr. Hans Luther, German ambassador at Washington, has been instructed to protest the dismissal at New York yesterday of charges of unlawful assembly against five men arrested in the recent steamship Bremen incident.

The protest was decided upon after a full report of magistrate Louis D. Brodsky's action had reached the foreign office.

New York dispatches relating the release of the five men superseded other news in afternoon newspapers, but Magistrate Brodsky's remarks in giving his decision were not published.

The decision was "a curious contradiction," the newspaper declared, in view of the recent protest to Moscow against communist activities in the United States.

"Respect for the flag," the newspaper continued, "is fundamental in international relations. When such an infamous action as the Bremen incident remains unpunished, then it is more than a curious contradiction between the American protest in Moscow and the freedom of this Bolshevik propaganda in an American harbor."

"It is further signified that a judge of a country which demands that its flag be respected in a similar case concerning another flag overlooks this principle."

OPEN REVOLT IN MEXICO LOOMS

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 7. (AP)—A copy of a manifesto declaring open rebellion against the government "under the leadership of Jose Vasconcelos," now in exile in Texas, was received in the senate yesterday.

Dated in Monterey Aug. 23, the manifesto attacked President Lázaro Cardenas and urged the people to join an anti-government movement.

VASCONCELOS READY TO JOIN REBELS

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 7. (AP)—"As soon as any organized group of Mexican territory, provided with arms, is ready to fight the present Mexican government, I will try to join them," Jose Vasconcelos, Mexican exile, said here.

Vasconcelos, unsuccessful candidate for the Mexican presidency in 1930, made his statement when informed a manifesto urging open rebellion against the government, "under the leadership of Vasconcelos," had been received in the Mexican senate.

Exhibitors are spurring German, French and Italian films in preference to the American-made product, the consul general said.

"GOING MY WAY TOMORROW?"

WPA REFUSES GUARDS PLAN

If Santa Ana resumes its program of stationing guards at school intersections, it probably will have to work through some other agency than the Works Progress administration. This type of project is not acceptable to the WPA, information received here today indicated.

George White, WPA director for San Diego and Orange counties, who conferred Friday with Dan Mulherron, Orange county WPA head, said that similar projects for San Diego county had been returned from the San Francisco office on advice from Washington.

Mr. White said it is hoped that the WPA program will be able to start between Sept. 9 and 16, but that congestion in Washington, where thousands of projects must be approved, has delayed the start.

When approval on projects is received, the local organization is ready to launch its program, Mr. Mulherron said.

ACTION HALTED FOR INGLEWOOD MAN

Claude O. Vorhies, Inglewood, Friday was granted an alternative writ of mandate against the justice court of Anaheim township and Justice of the Peace Charles Kuchel ordering a default judgment vacated against him and the action halted.

The writ, signed by Presiding Judge James L. Allen, is returnable at 2 p. m. Friday, Sept. 13, before Judge Allen in department 2, superior court.

Mr. Vorhies sought the writ on the grounds that a copy of the complaint and summons in the case for which judgment was rendered had not been served within three years after starting the action. The judgment was in favor of the Applying Collection Company of Santa Ana.

Portland Weather Man 'Burned Up'; The Sun Did It

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 7. (AP)—The weather man was all "burned up" and there was little he could do except try to laugh it off.

Joe Strachila, assistant observer in the local weather bureau, could not figure out at first where the break was coming from as he stood by a downtown window. He soon learned, however.

The smoke came from two holes burned in his coat by sun rays concentrated by a window display of magnifying mirrors.

PROBATION FOR ONE ARSONIST

Jess Sibley, recently convicted with Edward Tabor, Los Angeles business man, on charges of arson and conspiracy, was "given a break" late yesterday when Presiding Judge James L. Allen of superior court granted him probation for three years. A 60-day jail sentence accompanies the probation.

Sibley and Tabor were convicted of conspiring with John Rose and Henry Eli to burn an apartment house at Huntington Beach owned by Tabor. Eli and Rose have almost completed prison sentences imposed on them for their part in the fire which destroyed the building in 1932.

FHA PLANNING LOANS FOR FACTORIES

System to Be Explained Here by Representatives Of Federal Unit

Beginning Monday, every plant in Orange county using machinery or mechanical equipment will receive a call from a representative of the better housing office here, who will explain the Federal Housing administration's policy on loans for equipment and machinery.

James H. Berry, field representative for the FHA, said today that the FHA has outlined its policy in regard to machinery and equipment obtained under the FHA modernization credit plan, in a new booklet. It lists types of machinery and equipment eligible for loans up to $50,000, for apartment houses, multiple family houses, hotels, offices, business or other commercial buildings, hospitals, colleges and manufacturing or industrial plants. The booklet also outlines the policy on loans up to $2000 on other types of property.

"Salient points of eligibility," said Mr. Berry, "are that the article should have a unit value sufficient to justify time payments on its purchase; it should have an expectancy of useful life longer than the term of credit extended for its payment, and it must be part of the equipment of the structure or business conducted therein."

"Hand tools, small portable appliances, furniture, unless built in, and all installations of temporary character are ineligible. Loans for replacement parts on eligible equipment are insurable, but loans purely for repair are not. Appurtenances that are physically separate from a major eligible unit but are usable only as parts of such unit, are themselves eligible. Any ineligible item does not become eligible merely because it can be used with an eligible item or is bought therewith."

Mr. Berry said two representatives of the better housing office here will be selected to explain the credit plan in Orange county.

house at Huntington Beach owned by Tabor. Eli and Rose have almost completed prison sentences imposed on them for their part in the fire which destroyed the building in 1932.

When Tabor and Sibley were found guilty they moved for a new trial, which was denied. At that time Sibley applied for probation, and Tabor through his attorney, Mark L. Herron, filed notice of intention to appeal from the verdict of the jury.

Miss Eunice Bright, Pretty Bride-Elect of Bill Dawsit, Feted at Shower

Wedding to Be Affair of Sept. 27

Mother, Sister Share Hostess Honors at Party in Home

Friday, Sept. 27, is the wedding date of Miss Eunice Bright, who will be married in First Methodist church bride's chapel to Bill Dawsit of Santa Ana, it was learned by a group of friends who met last evening, at the invitation of Miss Bright's sister, Mrs. Paul Troister, and mother, Mrs. G. H. Bright, in the Bright home, 111 East First street, to honor her with a bridge party and miscellaneous shower.

A clever little red purse flacon of French perfume went to Miss Violet Johnson, high scorer in bridge. After the play, the hostesses served ices and assorted homemade cakes. Bouquets of dahlias brightened the rooms. Deep pink and blue cellophane favors were at each of the places.

The guests then presented their gifts to Miss Bright, who looked very pretty in a blue taffeta blouse and white skirt.

Guests included Miss Lucille Howell, Mrs. Palmer Stoddard, Mrs. Cotton Bennett, Mrs. Robert U. Smith, Mrs. Kermit Maynard, Miss Pauline Wells, Miss Erlene Farmer, Mrs. J. S. Taylor, Jr., Mrs. Allan Howell, Miss Betty Vorce, Miss Norma Wilson, Miss Evelyn Fairley, Miss Violet Johnson, Mrs. George Berry, Miss Elisabeth Hurd, Mrs. Ernest Hill, Miss Nancy Holt, Miss Yvonne Nelson, Mrs. Velda Frazer Drake, Miss Vivian Adams, Mrs. Bruce Swishelm, Miss Gladys Berkheimer, Miss Evelyn Hutton, Mrs. Art Gillespie, Miss Kathryn Sexton, Miss Norma Bush and Mrs. Robert McKee.

SOCIAL SECTION OF WOMAN'S CLUB HAS DAY OF PICNICS

Social section members of the Woman's club of Santa Ana went "a-picnicking" all day yesterday with a noon affair at Newport Beach and a wienie bake at night at Corona del Mar honoring husbands.

Third Tuesdays are to be meeting dates of the section, the group decided at the noon-day meeting. Mrs. R. G. Carman, 1904 Bush street, will be hostess at a 1:30 p. m. dessert bridge this month. Reservations are to be made with her by calling 1654-J. Only members and house guests will be eligible to attend.

Present at noon were Mesdames Blanche Hackleton, J. C. Ford, E. M. Waycott, J. D. Watkins, E. A. Elwell, H. M. Kinslow, Rolla R. Hays, Earl Ladd, J. D. McCracken, C. F. Crose, Margaret Church, E. R. Arnold, E. C. Read, Miss Linda Kroeker, Miss Dorothy Ladd, Miss Mary Belle Ladd, Miss Cherie Cozad and Miss Anna De Groot.

Nearly everyone went away with a prize at last night's wienie bake. Treasure hunts, varied games and numerous entertainments busied the guests. Mrs. Watkins was assisted by Mrs. W. M. Wells and Mrs. E. M. Waycott. Present were Dr. Richard Paggett and Mrs. Paggett, Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Hays, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Elwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Walter, Mrs. R. A. MacMahon, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Harman, Mrs. F. B. Martin, Miss La Verne Wells, Robert Carter, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Watkins, E. W. Waycott, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Waycott, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Holman, Mrs. Blanche Hackleton, Wharton James, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jacoby, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wells, Miss Linda Kroeker and Mrs. E. C. Read.

JUNIOR COLLEGE PATRONS HAVE AFTERNOON FETE

What to do about needy students at the Santa Ana Junior college was the problem which came before the Junior College Patron's association at a reception yesterday afternoon from 2 to 4 at the home of Mrs. W. C. Blanchard, 1108 French street.

Investigation of "donkey baseball games" as possible money raising ventures is to be made, the group decided. Brief talks were given by Director D. K. Hammond, Dean of Men Calvin C. Flint, and Dean of Women Mrs. Robert Northross. Mrs. Neil Beisel presided.

Announcement of the series of four lectures which will be given on "Consumer Education" was made by Mrs. Beisel.

A group of vocal duets were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Humeston of Tustin.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. B. E. Walbridge and Mrs. W. W. Tantlinger. Baskets of red roses and assorted spring flowers were used to decorate. Nearly a hundred guests were served.

RAY DAWSONS TO ARRIVE SOON TO LIVE IN TUSTIN

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dawson will return home soon from Los Angeles to make their home in Tustin, where Mr. Dawson will be in the Tustin High school faculty this year.

He has been studying this summer at U. S. C., specializing in corrective gymnastics, and made a brilliant record for himself.

Mr. Dawson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Dawson, 521 South Birch street.

Happily Married Wife Tells "Worried John" To Be Practical In Decision

By MARY STODDARD

"Just how far does a man's duty go in marriage?" The query was put recently by a middle-aged business man who signed himself "John." He claims that he has never loved his wife, but he has remained loyal and provided well for his family.

He has fallen in love with a girl and they have been friends for eight years.

Shall he sacrifice love for loyalty, even though he can provide for two homes?

Junior Ebell Board Plans to Meet

Santa Ana Junior Ebell club executive board is to meet Monday evening, Sept. 16, at 7:30 o'clock in the home of Miss Nan Mead on North Main street.

Miss Mead will preside at the meeting, in which plans for the opening of the juniors' year will be outlined.

PAST PRESIDENTS OF EMMA SANSOM ARE ENTERTAINED

It was past presidents of Emma Sansom chapter of the United Daughters of Confederacy that Mrs. Victor Montgomery honored at a luncheon one day this week at her Newport Beach home. Honorary president of the group, Mrs. Montgomery, was the first president of the organization.

Miss Louise Montgomery, daughter of the hostess, famed for her culinary skill, served the luncheon of southern delicacies.

Tables were set with green glass over a green cloth. Sand dollars topped with barnacles were holders for lighted candles at each place. In addition to the past presidents, William Vinter, houseguest, at the Montgomerys, and Miss Louise Montgomery were luncheon guests.

Others present were Mesdames M. E. Head, L. Mayfield, Lillian Pritchett, Ray Stedman, Miss Gertrude Montgomery, and the hostess. Past presidents unable to attend were Mesdames B. E. Tarver, Rebecca Pope of Orange, Mrs. C. E. Price, and Mrs. T. L. Clem of Los Angeles.

W. D. RUDDS RETURN FROM ALASKAN TRIP

"Welcome Home" had a cheery sound for Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Rudd and their children, Bill, Jr. and Henriette, yesterday morning when the H. F. Alexander docked at Wilmington, where employees of the Santa Ana and San Bernardino stores of the National Cash Register company were waiting with their wives to greet the voyagers.

The Rudds were returning from a five weeks' trip to Alaska which had included scenic points, Skagway, Dawson, and other Alaskan cities. Twice grounded while they were passengers of the Aleutian, the Rudds had interesting stories to tell.

The entire party adjourned to the gardens of the Rudd home at 2344 Fairmont, where a surprise picnic had been planned. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Braden and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ash, of Santa Ana, and Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Durgin, of San Bernardino.

U. D. C. CHAPTER IS TO MEET THURSDAY

Mrs. J. W. Taylor, 418 West Santa Clara street, will be hostess to members of the Emma Sansom chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Opening programs for the year, the group will have as their subject "Admiral Byrd and Admiral Semmes."

Lyric String Trio Slates Musicales

The Lyric String trio, whose personnel includes Miss Beatrice Gramas, pianist; Miss Anna May Archer, cellist; and Miss Audrey Gramas, violinist, will introduce itself to music lovers of the community by giving an open program Tuesday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the lounge of Santa Ana Valley Ebell clubhouse.

Each of the three girls is well founded in her chosen field of music. Beatrice is a student of Earl Fraser, Audrey of Elwood Bear, and Anna May of Edward Burns. They have been working together during the summer months, and plan an entertaining program for Tuesday.

R. J. HOWARD HOME IS SETTING FOR MISSIONARY MEET

In observance of an annual custom, the home of Mrs. R. J. Howard of Costa Mesa, was chosen for a meeting Thursday afternoon by the Women's Missionary society of the Santa Ana Free Methodist church.

Devotionals were led by the Rev. E. A. Archer, pastor. Vocal selections were presented by the Rev. James Abbot and Mrs. Abbot of Orange. Mrs. Louise Ward made a short talk, and Miss Lela Rall gave a report on the missionary address made at the district women's missionary service held in Whittier recently.

Noon luncheon was served and a social hour concluded the meeting.

JEROME BRADENS SURPRISED AT HOUSEWARMING

Surprising Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Braden at their new home at 108 Buffalo street, members of Mrs. Braden's sewing club with their husbands gathered one night last week to give the Bradens a housewarming.

The group presented the honored guests with a pottery coffee set in various colors. The Bradens formerly lived at 2041 North Main street. The evening was spent in parlor games.

Others present were Messrs. and Mesdames Guy Penn, Lewis Williams, Frank Pierce, Virgil Kinsler, Al Raymond, Joseph Ogle, Dr. Ralph Murane and Mrs. Murane.

FORMER IOWANS GATHER FOR PICNIC

Old friends who had resided in Iowa were united at a picnic in the gardens of the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Kinyon in Tustin one day last week.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. John Creighton and family of Santa Ana, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Creighton and family of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Whitlock, Dr. Hollenbeck and Mrs. Hollenbeck of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Armstrong of Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Vasson and family of Los Angeles, and the host and hostess.

'If In Doubt'

E. Y.: The real secret of being a successful hostess is to enjoy it yourself. If you get a thrill out of entertaining, no matter on how small a scale, and if you put yourself into it with enthusiasm, your party will be pleasant to your guests. If on the other hand you entertain lavishly but disinterestedly, you can be assured of failure.

Give a Marian Martin Shirtmaker a Good "Belting" for Smartness

PATTERN 9543

A frock that will outshine even you for vim and vigor, this smart shirtmaker is "in for a belting" before it's really smart. You can play Rich Man, Poor Man to your heart's content, too, for it has an impressive row of buttons down the front of a yoke that's cut all ones with the sleeves. The action pleats at back release fullness only where required, and saddle-shoulder sleeves may be either long or short. A gored skirt replaces the usual pleats with a gentle flare and a pointed collar is a young note. Pretty in woolly cotton, shirting or sheer wool. Complete, Diagrammed Marian Martin Sew Chart included.

Pattern 9543 may be ordered only in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 16 requires 2 1/2 yards of 54-inch fabric. SEND FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for EACH MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER and SIZE of each pattern.

THE NEW MARIAN MARTIN PATTERN BOOK is ready now! 40 pages... color illustrations... dozens of easy-to-make pattern designs... for every occasion and all your family, this whole fall and winter! Special slenderizing patterns, step-by-step sewing lessons, lovely gifts easy to make. Fabric and accessory news. Practical advice on choosing clothes. SEND FOR YOUR COPY NOW! PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND PATTERN TOGETHER, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Send your order to The Journal, Pattern Department, 117 East 5th street, Santa Ana, Calif.

Young Bride Is Honored At Shower

Mrs. H. T. McClelland, who as Miss Margaret Mary Vardy was married last July 26 in Yuma, Ariz., was complimented recently at a miscellaneous shower given in the home of Mrs. Edward W. Vardy, 643 North Birch street.

Court whist was played. Miss Gladys Berkheimer and Miss Agnes Miller won prizes. Chilled fruit punch was served during the play. Later, a desert course was served. Quantities of mixed flowers, yellow predominating, brightened the rooms.

The honoree received numerous gifts. Daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Vardy of 1721 Valencia street, she has been a student in the Santa Ana grammar and high schools.

McClelland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. McClelland of Costa Mesa. He received his high school training in Des Moines, Ia. He and his bride plan to establish residence this month in their new home at Norwalk where he is in the commissary department of the state hospital.

Other party guests were Miss Ethel Knox, Miss Gerry Alders, Mrs. D. Rohan, Mrs. George Randle, Mrs. Grace Brunner, Mrs. H. Vardy, Miss Mary Jane Vardy and Mrs. Lloyd Williams of Santa Ana, Miss Mary Ylarte of El Modena and Mrs. B. E. Davis of Orange.

WESTMINSTER CLUB TO HONOR HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS

Becoming a member of the high school department of the Westminster club school will not be without its glamor for incoming sophomore girls tomorrow when the Westminster club gives a tea at the home of Miss Frances Was at 617 Orange avenue from 3 to 5 tomorrow afternoon for incoming sophomore girls.

Members of the club under sponsorship of Mrs. J. B. Bichan will act as hostesses. Mrs. John Lewis and Mrs. Clifford Harwood will pour.

Incidental music during the afternoon will be presented by Betty and Madeline Woodruff, piano and violin duet.

Invitations have been issued to more than 50 guests.

The Thinkers

Wherein women of the community express their views on topics of particular interest to women.

What advice would you give a young person on choosing a profession?

Mrs. Homer Chaney: I think a young person can tackle with safety any profession in which he shows ability and which he enjoys following.

Mrs. C. T. Palmer: I think young girls as well as men should all prepare themselves for a business career. Because it enters into almost every profession, young people should take a secretarial course along with their other studies. And if possible, they should learn something to fall back on, at times when they can't do their chosen work.

Mrs. J. O. Preble: It's important to select a career as early as possible. I should say it would be wise to consider first the professions which offer the best chance for success, and then see whether one among them appeals to the individual. If young people can afford it, a year or so spent in travel before going into lifework is very pleasant.

When J. Fred Ryeer went "sailing, over the etc." on his first deep-sea fishing trip, he was so enthused that he and his house guest, J. C. Capelli of Denver, Colo., are out again this week-end. Mrs. Ryeer and Mrs. Capelli say they prefer their water in smaller quantities.

Getting curious about Goat Island, properly named San Clemente, with its wild goat feeding on roots on the rocky island, I interviewed Chester Dale and heard lots about Coronado islands, too.

It seems a good many of our popular business men go fishing, among them Dick Wimbush, Andy Anderson, Floyd Howard, Vic Walker, Dr. Waldo Wehrly, Ernest Wimbisher, Chester Dale, George Platt, etc.

Last week when Ernest Wimbisher took his young daughter, Elizabeth, for her initial deep-sea trip, she shamed him by landing three nice, fat fish—while father didn't even land a tomcod! She's considering giving him a few lessons now.

Josephine McKeeham, pretty daughter of the Walter McKeehams of Placentia, said "I do" to Horace Folskett, son of the H. Edwin Folskett of Compton, Wednesday evening at the Little Church of the Flowers. They'll make their home at 123 Olive street, Compton.

Did you know this has been interesting to read the life-story of the man for whom neither romance nor tragedy rivaled his interest in writing the American folk songs which have immortalized him. Fullerton Ebell music section studied his works most of one season without tiring of them.

Today we toast: Mrs. R. C. Harris for the splendidly constructive work which she did last year as leader of the child study section of Junior Ebell, and for her clear-sightedness and progressive attitude on matters of civic and intellectual interest.

They've Written An Operetta

Here are two local artists who turned their talents to writing a fairy story that would go well with music. Mrs. Frank Was, left, did the libretto for "Over the Garden Wall," operetta which the Peter Pan Players will present Sept. 13 and 14. Mrs. Malcom Macurda, right, composed the music.

TEAPOT TATTLE

By ELLEN SNEBLEY

Look knit 'n trim in sweaters, so say autumn stylists.

You who are about to depart for college campuses far and wide, don't forget to tuck into your winter wardrobe a twin sweater set (the new cardigan has a stand-up collar) in honey beige, or pottery rust, or perhaps in the new solid black... a dressier sweater blouse suggestive of Viennet's bateau neckline, with buttons and belts to dress it up for luncheon occasions, too. Silk and woolen Ascoats tucked into the front of plain V or square-necked sweaters were seen at Saratoga, "on dit."

Coods whose spirits are winged by expectations of social flutters, and whose hours these days are spent in last-minute purchases for campus wear are not the only ones for whom the almost-opening of school holds a thrill.

Let's not forget the hundreds of dear little tots for whom Sept. 16 means an introduction to school. They'll hang tightly to mother's hand as they skip along to the stucco or brick building through whose doors they'll pass, leaving the completely abstract realm of childhood behind them.

There are so many problems to be solved for these beginners... I remember a parent-teacher conflict in my own history, thinking backward, I probably richly deserved and gentle thwack which sent a proud parent on the warpath! More understanding between parents and teachers means a sharing of problems and a smoother path for the child.

If your child's school experiences baffle you a bit, send along a question or two, and we'll get ideas on 'em in The Thinkers.

Few are the dull moments for "Bud" Boyle, San Franciscan whose vacationing with his parents, the Lee Boyles, for a week or so.

Following are the who dined danced at the Biltmore the other night in honor of "Bud": Misses Armine Crawford, Barbara Dunne, Ruth Baker, Margaret Sawyer, Zarah Boyle and "Berta" Horton, Bob Van, Jack McCarthy, Fred Kyle, Otto Grigg, Paul Hales and Marjorie and Joe Knox... More recently, the visitor-to-town was host at a dinner party in the San Gabriel Country clubhouse.

Local Women Combine On Operetta

Home and fireside couldn't monopolize interests of two of the community's charming mothers so when Mrs. Malcom Macurda and Mrs. Frank Was were asked to combine their talents and write an operetta for the Peter Pan Players, they said, "Well, all right."

Invited to write the fairy story last spring, they took to pens and ink at odd moments and the thing was in rehearsal before a month had passed. Mrs. Was did the libretto of the operetta first. Several tunes persisted their tinkle to Mrs. Macurda so she explained them to Mrs. Was, the lyrics were written, and "Over a Garden Wall," the operetta, was finished.

Throughout the summer now, the two women have made their three-a-week appearances at the rehearsals, watching their ideas take productive form.

Mrs. Macurda who has two children, Neil and Audrey, besides a well-appointed home that's frequently the scene of informal parties, and has been president of Jefferson P.T.A., always has found time to play and write music. Some of her tunes were heard by Mrs. George Bond who asked her to set some original poems to music, later published in book form. She also belongs to Pegasus.

Mrs. Was has specialized in adult plays, undertaking the child story for the first time with the operetta. In a recent Community Players' one-act play contest, two of her entries were selected and produced. She has been a member of Quill Pen for more than nine years and manages a busy household of four children, Francis, Billy, Frank and Peggy.

"Over a Garden Wall" is being anticipated by friends of the two artists on its production dates Sept. 13 and 14.

MARJORIE BURNS AGAIN HONORED WITH PARTY

Miss Marjorie Burns, who is to be married next month to John Kenneth Savage of Laguna Beach, was complimented Thursday in Los Angeles at a party given by Mrs. Meredith Savage for a group of her relatives and relatives of her fiancé.

After dinner the time was spent in chatting.

Present from Santa Ana was Mrs. Elmer E. Curtis, grandmother of the honoree; from Laguna Beach, was her mother, Mrs. A. R. Burns; and from San Diego, an aunt, Mrs. B. O. Sutton and her daughter, Valerie.

KELLOGG AUXILIARY WILL HAVE TEA

September 18 at 2 p. m. was set as the date and time of a silver tea for the Ernest Kellogg post, of the V. F. W., auxiliary, at the home of Mrs. Robert Hopkins, 2024 Cypress street, at the meeting held last night in the K. of C. hall.

Committee appointments for October and November will include Mrs. Charles Camm, Mrs. Oscar Area and Mrs. Effie Hawley.

Mrs. Effie Hawley will entertain the sewing circle Sept. 25 at her home at 517 Cypress street at an all-day affair with a covered-dish luncheon at noon.

Guests at last night's meeting were Mrs. Charles Russell, Fullerton; Mary Borg and Oral Walters, Anaheim; and Hazel Hill and Myra Groves, Orange.

Refreshments were served last night by a committee including Mrs. Anna McCleary, Mrs. Robert Hopkins and Mrs. Neal Meister.

G. S. POPPY PATROL HAS SOCIAL EVENTS

Poppy patrol members of Girl Scout Troop No. 1 were entertained Wednesday at a buffet supper and afternoon garden party at the home of Miss Josephine Butler, one of their members, at 2428 Riverside drive.

Prizes in the play of hearts went to Barbara Kemper and Jean Russick. Others present were Margaret Rutan, Jean Russick, Lure Kendal, Barbara Kemper, Ruth Jane Mathews and Irene Noble. Miss Butler was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Sam Butler, in hostess duties.

Last night, members of the troop and Mrs. R. R. Russick, their scoutmaster, gathered at Jack Fisher park for a farewell picnic for Mildred and Barbara Kemper who are leaving next week for San Bernardino.

WALNUT MAPLE TAPIOCA

By Mrs. C. F. Crose
418 West First street.
Ingredients: 1 pint milk, 1/2 tsp. minute tapioca, yolks of 2 eggs, pinch salt, 3/4 cup maple syrup, 1 cup English walnut meats. Heat milk in double boiler and stir in the minute tapioca carefully. Cook for 15 minutes, then add well beaten egg yolks and salt, no sugar. Stir for three minutes. Then let cool.

Beat the maple syrup into the cool tapioca and add English walnut meats. Serve with whipped cream.

STOCKS AGAIN REACH NEW RECORDS

Year's Highs Achieved By Many in Spirited Session Today

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Sept. 7. (AP)—The stock market rode over heavy profit taking barriers today and again pranced confidently into new high territory for the year or longer.

Gains of fractions to around 4 points were scattered over a wide front. The President's "breathing spell" letter still acted as the main buying stimulant. The close was strong. Transfers approximated 1,250,000 shares.

Active Saturday

It was one of the most active Saturday sessions in some time. Blocks of 1000 to 10,000 shares changed hands at the opening and the ticker tape fell several minutes behind floor transactions. The first hour's turnover of 730,000 shares was the largest since May 23, last.

Among the active gainers were American Telephone, Allied Chemical, American Can, Air Reduction, Westinghouse, Western Union, Auburn, Case, Du Pont, Deere, Spiegel-Meyer-Stern, Union Pacific, Santa Fe, Radio preferred "B" and common, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem National Steel, Sears Roebuck and American Chassis General Motors, Chrysler, Consolidated Gas, General Electric, Johns-Manville, Schenley and National Distillers were narrow. The metals and oils were backward.

$135,000 for Seat

Another stock exchange seat was transferred today for $135,000, an advance of $15,000 over a sale announced yesterday. It was the best price for a membership since April 12, last year.

Chain store sales for August increased substantially for nine companies and only two showed a slight decrease for the eight months period.

RED SCALE IS SEEN AGAIN ON LEMONS

damage, alternaria, mislabeling, and container. Maturity is not of much consideration at this season of the year, unless it be over-maturity, but it will soon be early season, and it has always attracted considerable attention at that time.

Previous to 1933 an orange was mature if it contained a ratio of eight parts of sugar to one part of acid, and the outside showed 25 per cent of its natural color, in which case it was permissible to stimulate the color by sweating. However, if the color was 70 per cent normal, the ratio of sugar to acid was only six and one-half to one. In 1933 this law was changed so that all oranges must test eight to one, except north of the Tehachapi mountains, which includes Lindsay, Porterville, and northern districts. In those districts navel is still permitted to be packed under the six and one-half to one ratio. The question might be asked whether the consumers helped to frame this part of the law.

Determining Color
Determining the color has given considerable trouble. The writer was present at a hearing before the state department of agriculture, at which the Imperial Valley Grapefruit growers were endeavoring to gain a ruling on it. Grapefruit was exhibited which was natural green except for a few spots which were fully colored. This was caused by a leaf which rested on the fruit and caused a sweating, and the yellow color was brought out. Some contended that if one-fourth of the area of the fruit was so colored it satisfied the law. The department ruled that the entire area must be changed 25 per cent, as would be shown if the fruit were twirled on an axis to blend the light and dark.

For the enlightenment of the reader, the following quotation from the law will give the exact definition of 25 per cent color: "Twenty-five per cent of characteristic color in the case of oranges is defined as that color designated by the Munsell color notation as hue 1.14 green-yellow, value 5.23 chroma 4.3."

Value Is Evident

Is it not strange that lawyers, like doctors, see fit to write their prescriptions in hieroglyphics? As complicated as it seems, its value is none the less evident, for the enthusiasm of the purchaser is bound to be soured on further purchases when he buys immature fruit.

ALTERED TRAFFIC LAWS TO BE EFFECTIVE SEPT. 15

Various alterations bringing state traffic laws down to date will become effective Sunday, Sept. 15.

Legislators this year adopted the California vehicle code in which the regulations concerning operation and ownership of motor vehicles have been systematically arranged, clarified and changed where necessary. This code was evolved after extensive studies by an advisory committee on motor vehicle legislation, appointed some years ago by the state legislature, which included representatives of state departments, automobile clubs, civic bodies and numerous allied associations.

Among the new and amended rules outlined in a compilation just received from the Automobile Club of Southern California law department, the following are of special significance to motorists:

Penalties Severe

More severe penalties are imposed on a reckless driver who is approximately causes bodily injury to any person. Minimum penalty is 30 days to six months in jail, or fine of $100 to $500, or both.

Instead of the previous 15-mile speed limit at intersections where view of approaching traffic is obstructed, where such intersections are on through highways or are traffic-controlled in business or residence districts the 20 and 25-mile limits, respectively, of such district will prevail, with a limit of 30 miles per hour over such intersection situated in open territory. Although unchanged, the code contains a restatement of the basic speed law.

Parking Restriction

Angle parking on state highways within cities is prohibited except for loading or unloading merchandise.

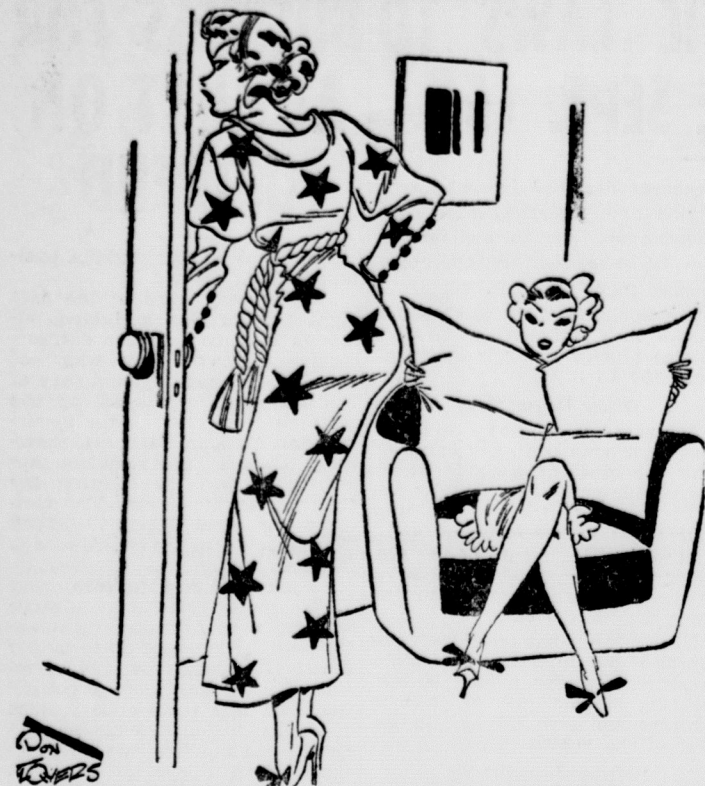

Added strength is given to law enforcement in drunken or negligent driving and hit-run cases by

Measures Designed to Make Conviction and Punishment for Such Offenses More Certain and Revocation or Suspension of Operators' Licenses More Frequent.

The minimum distance at which trucks may follow one another outside of city limits is increased from 150 to 300 feet.

To a Lot of Good Friends:

Thanks for many letters expressing friendship and appreciation of this Saturday column. It's always nice to have three cheers from home. I'm grateful.

COL. V. ORANGE.

To John C. Tuffree:

Congratulations on your election as president of the newly organized Placentia Orange County exchange and good luck to the exchange.

COL. V. ORANGE.

To Alfonso Yorba:

I have been watching for several weeks the activities of yourself and others in the Spanish-Californian club of San Juan Capistrano and I must say it gives me a thrill to see how thoroughly you have succeeded in keeping alive the traditions of the pioneers in your quaint and beautiful city.

COL. V. ORANGE.

To County Budget Critics:

Some of you people sound as if you still believe the budget is a political football made up for the purpose of giving you a subject with which to air old grudges. Very often I disagree with Supervisor W. C. Jerome but the more I see of his opposition the more I believe in Bill Jerome.

COL. V. ORANGE.

To Holmes Bishop:

Your articles in The Journal regarding the citrus marketing problem caused by excessive granulation this season, are decidedly worth while. I am sure the growers will appreciate the thoroughness with which you analyze the question. Also it occurs to me there may be a few of the fellows dancing on a hot stove.

COL. V. ORANGE.

To the Orange Rotary Club:

One of the most impressive news stories I have read in a long time was printed in The Journal last night. It was about you and what you did for that deaf boy, Robert Weitbrecht, who had never heard his mother's voice until you bought him a new hearing device. Your thoughtfulness is a credit to the community and to Rotary.

COL. V. ORANGE.

To Roland D. Flaherty:

Farm bureau members and citizens in general will have much more confidence in you and the farm bureau if you discontinue your star chamber sessions. If you want to keep yourself "sold" to the people, you will find the going much easier if you eliminate anything that even appears like backroom government. The American public voted that out years ago.

COL. V. ORANGE.

To D. K. Hammond:

I notice an announcement from you as director of the Junior college which says fees and deposits for certain courses at the college have been reduced approximately one-half. Then, as I read on, through a long list of fees I am informed there is a fee of $1 for change of program and a fee of $1 for late registration besides fees for towels, lockers, etc. You didn't go deep enough with your paring knife, professor.

COL. V. ORANGE.

To California Cities:

Those of you with state highways running through your business districts better start now to amend your parking ordinances. It will not be news to many of you, but anyhow this is a reminder that the last legislature enacted a bill into law which forbids diagonal parking after September 15 on primary state highways. This automatically will settle a good many controversies in cities where state highways are also business arterials.

COL. V. ORANGE.

To Dr. K. H. Sutherland, Health Officer:

Your recent warning about cleanliness in restaurants is one that should be appreciated by all. Orange county restaurants for the most part are in excellent shape, it is reported. For the good of the community, first class restaurants should co-operate willingly with health authorities to see that any which are the least bit "off color," are promptly closed. "What's Behind that Door?" is a good slogan.

COL. V. ORANGE.

To Franklin D. Roosevelt:

I read with interest your letter to Roy Howard and I note you say you think you have the confidence of the people "in the soundness of our economic life." I have confidence in your willingness to try new plans having for their purpose the betterment of society. I wish I could go all the way and say I have confidence in the soundness of our economic life as you have shaped it. But I haven't. I don't call it economically sound when we spend in three years as much as the nation did from Washington to Wilson. I don't call it economically sound when the man in one part of the country is starved to make money for the man in another part. I don't call it sound when your congress spent $144,000 a minute during its last session. I don't call it sound when you keep on such men as Mr. Farley to direct the expenditure of your four billion as a campaign fund.

COL. V. ORANGE.

Whimsies of O. O. McIntyre

I have been rehearsing before the mirror at odd moments recently a cold eye for drunks. That icicle glance that sends the tiger slinking back to the jungle. If I don't master this I'll never know anything rather good, you may not be seeing me around.

What there is about me to attract drunks I'll never know. Unless it's the set of my ears. But if there is only one stew at a party it's 100 to 1 that before the evening is half over he will be sitting in my lap or dangle me out on the porch to see which is the better man.

I cannot sit in the most obscure corner of a restaurant behind a palm without one, sooner or later, staggering over in cloudy rage to know why I insulted his wife by crying on my shoulder because just 18 years ago this very evening his favorite great aunt was in a sleigh runaway.

It's not unusual when my car stops in traffic for some pickled gent to stick his head in the window and leer: "Think you own the streets, eh? Come on, get out of that ice wagon and I'll heat the daylight out of you." At the theater you'll often see a strange man snoring on my shoulder with all stops out.

Out walking a dog before breakfast today occurred an incident inspiring this wail. I noticed a fetching pair of gloves in a window and dropped in to ask the price. The clerk, indifferent about the gloves, was intent on selling me something new in a union suit, one with a yard-long zipper dingsus. I explained I was a confirmed two-piece underwear man. But he was insistent and suddenly realized he was sloshed to the ears. You could chin yourself on the bourbon aroma. At 9 in the morning I would annex probably the only spiffed salesman on the island. And he never did show the gloves. "What you need," he hiccuped after me clear to the curb, "is an up-to-the-minute union suit."

On a liner a few summers ago I was across corridor from the inevitable lush of every voyage. He staggered on the gang-plank at the 2 a. m. sailing, in high glee and top hat evening dress, and they trundled him off at Havre in a litter, feet up, with the horrors. The second night out he knocked at my cabin around dawn to know if I had seen his armadillo. That was a tip-off to slam the door in his face. But swimming out of the water of sleep plus a natural sappiness, I piloted him to his bunk and comforted him until he dozed. Nightly and a time or two daily the rest of the voyage he was in my hair to help him find his armadillo. I sailed for rest and quiet and wound up peering under the covers of his delirium. He was a congressman and not long ago in a letter he wondered if I remembered "our big bust on the Atlantic." My little tipple, outside of table water, had been mint tea.

So long have I been a magnet for gentlemen in their cups that I can gauge to a split second the time they will tune up for a cry or swing from the ankle. They never leave me in good humor with protestations of undying friendship as they do others. There was a night at a banquet in the old Holland House I played good Samaritan and taxicabbed a limp stew to his home in the East 90's. As his doorway there blew up the inevitable storm which I couldn't calm. The tax driver joined him in harangue and I found he was also cock-eyed. They were ready to lay me out like a rug when a passing policeman prevented possible mayhem. I considered it a break the cop wasn't plastered too. I was stuck for a $2 tariff and the cab shot away with my best top coat and an inflated silk muffler.

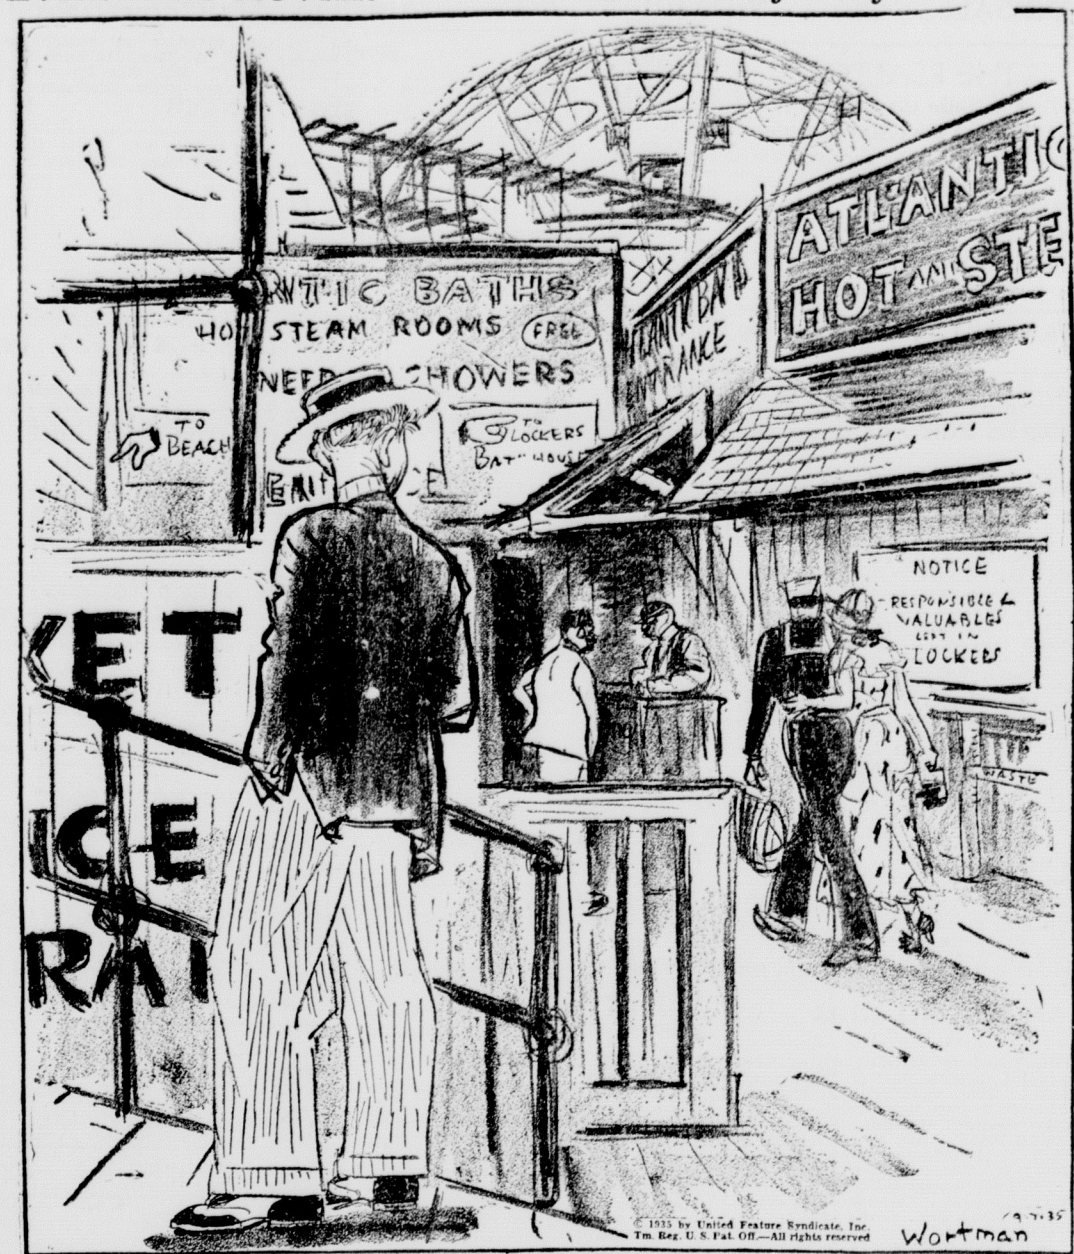

I used to enjoy an after mid-night snack in those Coffee Pot places, set netwise on busy corners to catch the dregs of night. But I was seldom able to finish my bite. Innocently enough I was continually starting a ruckus and a half dozen men would be holding off some truck driver who insisted I had made a dirty remark. I was usually the only sober person in the place and never looked up from my plate. Or uttered the tiniest cheep.

Then that time on the avenue I touched a well dressed gentleman on the shoulder to inform him his garter had slipped its moorings. When he turned around I saw he was owl-eyed and I began looking about for a convenient shade tree to climb. Instead he grabbed me and began a sidewalk saltarello. A fellow on a bus top called down to a passing friend: "Pipe the elderly cut-ups!" And added: "Both soused to the gills." (Copyright, 1935)

Italy was first during 1934 in number of automobile deaths per 10,000 motor vehicles with an average of 54.5, states a report to the Automobile Club of Southern California. The United States was tenth on the list with an average of 12.3, while New Zealand was low with 6.6.

The Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Probably the most significant untold story of the Young Democrats' convention in Milwaukee recently was the neat piece of dodging done by Jim Roosevelt in order to preserve harmony within the ranks.

Nominally, Jimmy was lined up with the faction of Young Democrats vigorously opposed to his father's New Deal policies. Leader of the faction was Cliff Woodward, at that time national president, and backing a ticket opposed to major Roosevelt policies.

On occasion, Jimmy Roosevelt has not hesitated to oppose some of his father's pet policies, notably the abolition of child labor. But this time he dodged.

Although national secretary of the organization, he did not show up in Milwaukee. He claimed his yeast business required his presence in New Jersey.

Later Cliff Woodward, head of the anti-New Deal ticket, telephoned him to make a speech. When this did not satisfy the convention, Woodward telephoned again. "This time Jimmy said he was ill."

Finally he sent his younger brother, John, Harvard sophomore. John flew to Milwaukee, sat on the platform, looked decorative but said nothing. Between sessions he sat in his hotel room, saw nobody, made no mistakes.

Thus Jimmy was represented, but he slid out from under the anti-New Deal ticket. As a result, the New Deal ticket, headed by Frank Wickham of Sioux Falls, S. D., was elected.

Jim Farley, who guided the convention by long distance telephone, considered this an important victory. He did not want dissension within democratic ranks—even Young Democrats; wanted to give an example of unity to the nation.

THESE THINGS
NEW MEXICO'S brawny Governor Clyde Tingley is credited with being a shrewd politician in his own state, but he is a bit vague about national issues.

He and Governor Alfred of Texas recently conferred with the President regarding federal funds for projects of joint interest to their two states.

During the discussion, White House Secretary Marvin McIntyre came into the President's office with a message for Tingley. While he was reading it Alfred brought up the subject of the pending federal oil control bill.

One Man's Opinion

By Duncan Ellsworth Clark

EDITOR'S NOTE—Here is an informative, analytical daily feature on current topics. The opinions expressed in this column are not necessarily the same as those held by The Journal.

Schools and How They Help Business

The opening of school affects business immediately. It stimulates retail activity in many lines. The summer months are usually rather dull in most fields of merchandising. Most agricultural activity lags along during spring months. A hoping against all the vicissitudes of weather and blight, for good returns at harvest time. With the coming of September, bringing its hint of colder weather, of coming frost and shortening days, with its promise of ripening fruit and yellowing fields, with the beginning of preparations for winter's siege, a keener zest comes into life. Business feels the stimulus and gets into a brisker stride again. And just at this time the opening of school gives another big boost to the whole game of catering to human wants.

The school itself is a vast humanizing enterprise reaching into many avenues of effort. School budgets call for diversified commodities. A modern school program requires a large variety of equipment and supplies, to meet the needs of one-fourth of the community's population directly affected. The school store runs through the range of a department store, supplying necessary materials for the wide variety of instructional program. Local business responds to the stimulus applied.

Homes in the community feel the impetus in numerous ways. Children's wants get comparative-

Howdy, folks! One nice thing about playing a typewriter is that you don't have to keep time.

With the gridiron season approaching, Little Homer is again moaning because concrete football stadiums have no knotholes.

NEWS OF THE COLLEGES

Dean Rufus J. Milkshake, president of the Castoria college, announces that the college has raised its entrance requirements. Applicants must have a high school education or be able to punt 60 yards.

The chief trouble with many colleges in America is that the professors don't recognize ability and the students don't possess it.

RECHRISTENED

It has been called the coast, the beach. The strand, and off the lee shore. But sun-tan suits on every beach have changed it to the sea shore.

And Everett Ella says it is called cold cash because people don't keep it long enough to get it warm.

ABIGAIL APPLESAUCE SEZ:

"A modern mother is one that can hold safety pins and a cigarette in her mouth at the same time."

Another old-timer in Santa Ana is one who can remember when a rumble seat was a board laid across the wagon box back of the spring seat.

TODAY'S WORST PUN

It always makes me laugh. So wonderful a treat. To see an idiot run a mile. And only move two feet.

"How old are you, little man?" "Darned if I know, mister. Mother was 27 when I was born, but now she's only 24."

Remarkable Remarks

If there should come a big pestilence and all the women in the world should die, the men could get along very well indeed without the women. The late Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Gilman, writer and lecturer.

I do not think we can go home and face the people unless we do something; if we don't, God help the people. Another friend solicits the name of the individual. Bone, Washington, referring to neutrality issue.

SKINNY SKRIBBLES

Around and About Town

With C. F. SKIRVIN

Bill Hagthorp, publisher of the Orange County Daily Reporter, thought he would celebrate the appointment of his paper as the legal publication for the city of Santa Ana, by taking a vacation. He selected Arrow Bear as the location. His purpose was to hunt and fish and play. Bill hasn't been able to hunt, and if he had a fishin' line he couldn't use it, and he hasn't been able to play, because he has a foot which refused to function. How a newspaperman can become so extravagant as to take on a case of gout remains to be explained, but report is that since arriving at the vacation spot Bill has been giving considerate and respectful attention to a bum foot.

Next Monday is Admission day. That may be all right for proper observance within the commonwealth, but if the unemployed, the indigents and transients over the United States hear about there will have to be a special session of the legislature to provide more taxes.

Here's one for the hefty: Why is Major Anderson a refrigeration expert? Because he deals in cold facts.

Not an information bureau, but I would have gladly informed the young lady who asked me where she left her car had the location been known to me. Much as I regret to admit it there are many things I do not know.

The vacation season is about over. Most of the trailers are home.

Met Lewis Hoff who insisted the mail must go through. He had a sack full of letters, a bicycle and a flat tire. The proximity of a service station met the situation most satisfactorily, and with the required air pressure Lewis was peddling his way from house to house in the interest of the post-office department and the people who sustain it.

Someone has sent me a pamphlet on the "Causes of Business Depression." What I want is the cure.

John Citrus did not see this one, but "grandpa" overheard it. Two rather young ladies motivated toward the lunch counter. Discussion re: certain wearing apparel. Evidently one of the duet was not sold, as her reply was: "Oh, one of those damn things!"

It is not difficult to imagine what the "grandma" of our day would have to say. Anyways, we got to admit the language of the times is direct and vastly more expressive.

The personal mail of one of my friends recently contained an intimation that he was a "pillar in the church." Another friend solicits the name of the individual. Says he is looking for a soft pew.

If there are some things worth while about you which still remain after you are dead, you have not lived in vain.

That old quartet of mine got together Friday morning but nary a one of 'em could sing. The weather was too unfavorable for Carl Edgar's voice. Frank was had the rheumatism. Ed Farnsworth just out from an auto collision, and I never could sing anyway. Under the circumstances if anyone had chanced along and started "Happy Days Are Here Again," there would have been an argument.

Plummer Bruns wants to know what's become of me. That's what I want to know. The last invoice only showed 108 pounds.

Ho, hum, I'll have to go to the San Diego fair and write my name on the Orange county guest register. It's my only chance to get into famous company. Several friends have returned who intend to write their names on souvenir cards, but they were not obtained at the Orange county exhibit. As I gather the evidence the exhibit came from an entirely different source. The series come in sets of four. You nude ask for any more information.

Next Sunday evening you better try to find your own church. The union services are over.

Returning from a trip to Iowa, Gene Short reports conditions improved. He says the farmer who raises corn and oats and wheat and feeds live stock is making money. The farmer who raises corn and hauls it to an elevator isn't making any money. Gene says his experience is that the farmer who farms is getting along, but the farmer who spends his time on a street intersection instead of behind a plow isn't doing so well. Employment is available to those who want to work, and go out with the determination to find it. That was his version of midwest conditions.
